Bob,

You've been a great friend (and supply officer)
sometimes you are weird and give me a headache and get on my nerves, and are a pain in the rear and always giving me a hard time. And you are a geek and non muscular,
but other than that you are the greatest. Stay a good friend and a great (HA! HA!)
C.A.P. supply officer.

Your friend for eternity

Standing up for your rights,

It's the American way;

Stating beliefs and opinions;

Relentlessly joining forces;

To protect what is rightfully yours,

What will profit the majority?

What comes first environment or progress?

Voice your opinion; make a stand.

Your vote may make a difference as you

Reach for your goals and

Follow your dream.

*Creating art is expressing oneself;
A special talent that is very unique;
There are few that are truly gifted
With the ability to create,
Bringing out their inner selves.
Artists are one of a kind
With no set mold to follow,
Using only their imagination to Materialize their abstract ideas as they Reach for their goals and Follow their dream,*

A world of change and progress

Rapidly growing larger

With new ideas emerging.

Different faces, different personalities—

There are many things to experience

In this great world around us.

It all begins with us the youth of today.

Soon to be the leaders of tomorrow.

Be yourself and strive for the best as you

Reach for your goals and

Follow your dream.

Growing as an individual,

Participating in a group,

Helps to bond friendships

That will last a lifetime.

The happiness that is shared,

The sorrows that are endured,

The hours that are sacrificed

Build memories that are cherished.

The hard work shows; so don't give up,

Reach for your goals and

Follow your dream.

Not caring what others may think,

Searching to find our true beings as we,

Reach for our goals and Follow our dream.

Chieftain Dedication Goes To Bulkley, Dant And Thomas

In the four short years since Mr. Mike Dant has been at Westwood, he has made his mark. He established himself quickly as one of the "master teachers" in the English Department, having the knowledge of his subject matter and the expertise to impart it to his students in such a way that they learned, enjoyed it and like their instructor. This English teacher has been made girls golf pro and boys tennis pro, and has succeeded in both areas. If you want to see his eyes light up, ask him about his wife the artist, his two daughters, or offer him some chocolate.

Mr. Alvie Thomas is one of those "War Weary Warriors" who started at Westwood way back in 1962, the first year we opened the Westwood doors to students. This happy-go-lucky teacher has been teaching junior students history for the past twenty years, and loving every day of it, and teaching them in such a way that they love his class, and learn a lot of history. Alvie Thomas is one of those caring people who help make the school tick. He has always been a class sponsor, and taken more than his share of responsibility with supervising students in their extra curricular activities. For many years he coached football, and has recently switched to coaching the girls softball team and assisting with girls track, and he has achieved great success in this area.

John Bulkley joined the Westwood staff in 1966 as a counselor, and has been working in that capacity, heading the department for a period of ten years. Mr. Bulkley came from Carson Junior where he had been a teacher/coach since 1957. This pleasant, easy-going man deals with his counselees in a very caring, down-to-earth manner, he has excellent rapport with them and the teaching staff, all of which contributes to the tremendous success he experiences in this position. If you want to get a big smile from Mr. Bulkley, ask him about his golf game or the St. Louis Cardinals.

*Working to build a fabulous float,
Spending many long hours,
Perfecting the smallest detail,
Pulling together with classmates,
Giving everything you've got,
Hoping it will be enough to win
The cherished Natani award.
Sharing memorable times,
Growing and learning as you
Reach for your goals and
Follow your dream.*

High Spirited Warriors Welcome A New Year

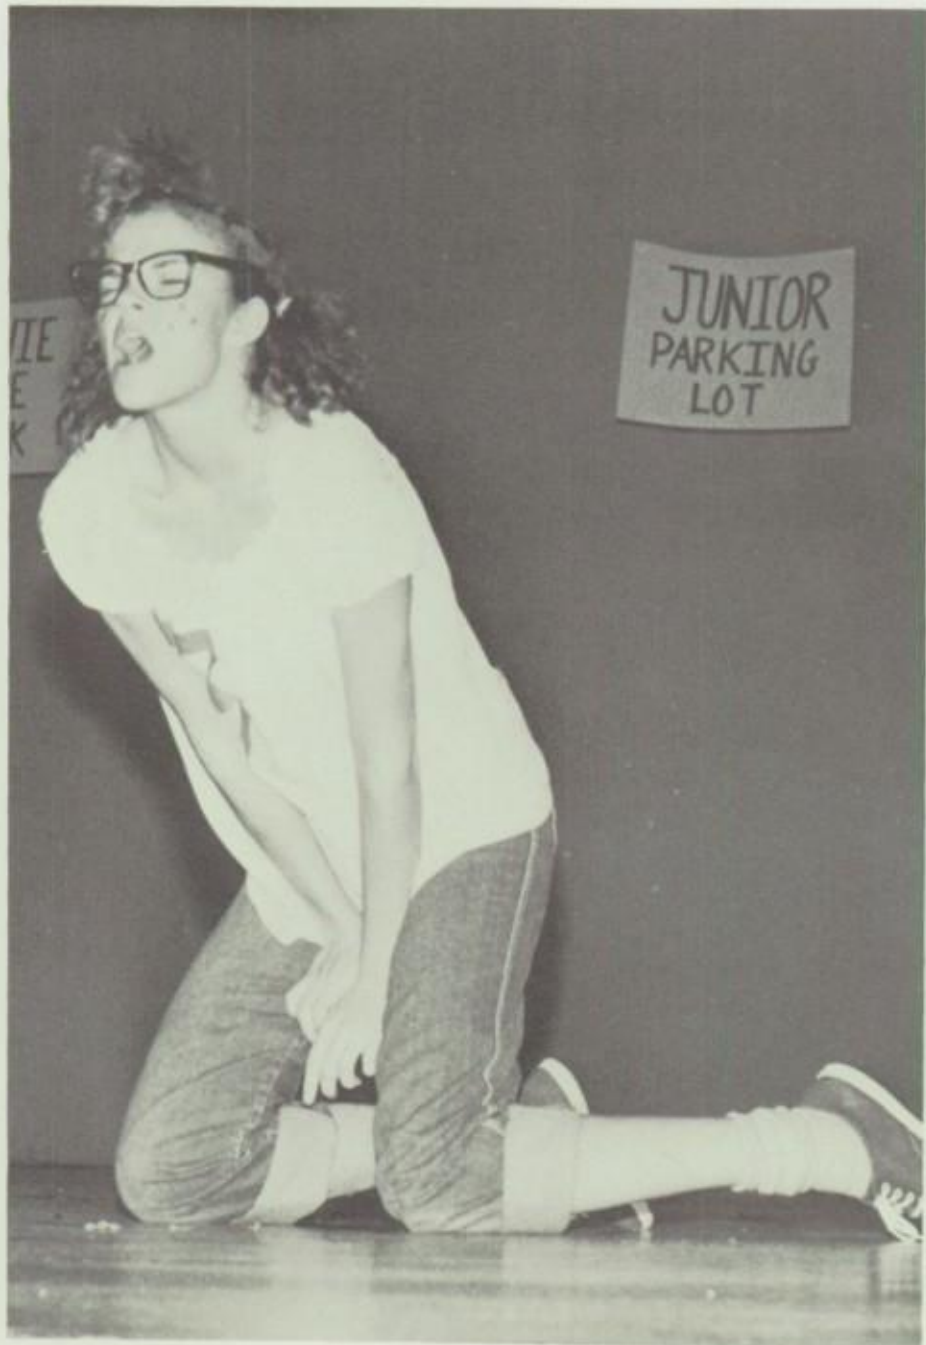

The year began with much enthusiasm, and the opening assembly with its traditional "poking fun" at the sophomore class put '81-'82 off to a good start. The student council members once again dressed up in ridiculous fashions and played ignorant to the ways of high school students while portraying the sophies. The assembly was also directed at initiating and inducting Westwood's new principal Jack Joyce, who was asked to demonstrate his "Warrior beat" by banging out a rhythm on an Indian drum.

A number of the outgoing sophomores decided to run for office, and the elected were John Biggs, president, Matt Riggs, vice president, and Renee Riggs, secretary, each promising to lead the class of '84 proudly through the challenging year ahead.

The new Varsity and J.V. cheerleaders led the assembly with their yells and new cheers, making the crowd roar with spirit. In addition, the Warriorettes moved to the beat of the music, followed by the sounds of the "Fight Song" and "Honky Tonk" as the awesome Warrior Band performed.

Group Receives Top Honors At Pom Camp

Once again, the Warriorettes and cheerleaders led the Warriors through a spirited sports season.

Their season began in July, when the Varsity squad and Warriorettes attended summer cheer camp at Northern Arizona University. While at NAU, the Varsity Cheerleaders received superior ribbons every night they performed. They also were awarded the spirit stick, which is given to the group with the most spirit, and a superior ribbon overall. The Leadership Award and the award given for greatest attendance at the camp from one school were given to both the cheerleaders and the Warriorettes.

Our Junior Varsity squad was the only J.V. team to capture a top-four ranking at their cheer camp, held this year at Arizona State University.

The Warriorettes, who were sponsored by Sandy Cooper, and the cheerleaders, sponsored by Barbara Commons, promoted spirit and excitement at all football and basketball games. Their spirited leadership made each game more enjoyable.

Activities Start Year Out With Bang!

The annual Soap Bowl started the fall activities. Students met old friends at this game that raised soap for our football team, and made new acquaintances at the Hello Dance which followed. Lawn Projects were constructed the week of the Mt. View versus Westwood game, and this activity also brought new friends together. The juniors and seniors continued to uphold the traditions of excellent, well-constructed projects. New members were registered for clubs during Thai-Chewee week. Each club set up a booth, decorated with the clubs theme, and tried to persuade students to join their club. The Curtain Time assembly brought out the hidden and unusual talents of many members of our student body. Many creative acts were performed, many never before attempted before a live audience. Arizona Blood Services, invited by the Student Council, received more than a record 85 pints of blood from students and faculty who decided to help their fellow men.

Spirit Fever Sweeps Over Westwood Campus!

LOOK AT THAT HEAR!

Spirit was on the rampage! Everyone, everywhere, caught it! It was evident at football games. Orange and blue balloons were sold to unite people. And that's exactly what they did. Chains of balloons were formed, stretching high above. Spray painted hair was used to let others know of spirit; it ranged from green to silver, to orange and blue. The weeks of major football games, such as Mesa High and Mt. View, were spirit weeks, too with such events as Western Day, with cowboy boots and hats, to Hawaiian Day; grass skirts, bright shirts and leis. The traditional Tease the Hares Day returned, and the old familiar orange and blue was the uniform dress at football and basketball games. The dances which followed nearly every game were all well attended. The new principal brought with him new ideas. Colored shirts for faculty and students bonded everyone together, for they brought a sense of familiarity, a cause which was possible to relate with.

Homecoming Proves To Be A Spirited Success!

Homecoming 1982 was one of the most spirited in many years. Each day of the week, Warriors dressed up as "punks" or some other strange characters to get spirited for the big game, in which the Warriors were victorious.

The Homecoming assembly proved to be excellent, and displayed was the "talent" still possessed by alumni. With Craig Nielson and Jeff Chapman as emcee's, the show ran smoothly. They entertained us as Mr. Rodgers and Wilma Wilma.

A wide variety of performances were included in the show, from Lance Reader singing "Even Now" to Graeme Sellers and Martin English acting out their "Parrot Sketch".

The football game proved to be extremely spirited, with alumni in great attendance. The halftime show was full of suspense, as we waited for the crowning of the '82 King and Queen. Lenard Brunsdale and Joan Bracken were awarded this honor.

To top off the festivities, the Homecoming dance was a big success. It was held in the Boy's Gym and the decorations were magnificent. A light show and pictures were part of the decor.

Curtain Time Stars On Their Way To Fame

Desire, talent, and the ability to entertain were all qualities that could be found in the performers who participated in this year's Curtain Time assembly held on October 2. Rob Jarvis and Ken Millett were M.C.'s for the show, acting as two irresponsible spies on a mission to capture the villain, who they unsuccessfully tried to spot in each act.

A wide variety of well-prepared talent was displayed, making it obvious that the final product was the result of hard work and the continuous attempt to perfect and polish the performances.

The acts came in a wide variety, among them the Flying Zucchini Brothers from outer Mongolia who paid a special visit to Westwood. Clad in blue gym suits, the brothers displayed their extremely difficult gymnastic stunts while their sponsor translated to the audience their strange foreign utterings and explained the tricks they performed.

Along with skits, singing and instrumental acts also appeared on the agenda, including Westwood's Honor Choir, and a number by the Jazz Band led by Bob Bamrick. In conclusion, Dance Production members were a perfect imitation of New York City girls as they performed to the sound of "Boy From New York City".

Fall Comedy Strikes Audiences' Funny Bone

"The Curious Savage," Westwood's 1981-1982 fall play, proved to be surprising, as well as entertaining. The plot concerned Mrs. Savage-portrayed by Donna Calder) being placed in Cloister's mental institution, by her three children (played by Phil Lowry, Ken Millett, and Brenda Weber) trying to gain control of certain bonds that were in her possession. Mrs. Savage sent her vain children on a wild goose chase, and the play ended with unexpected results.

Fifty students tried out for the play, and eleven were chosen to participate. There were eight seniors, two juniors, and one sophomore chosen. Under Mr. Jones' direction, rehearsals were held after school and all day on Saturdays in order for the performers to perfect their parts. Practice started one and a half months before the prescheduled performances that were given on November 11-12. The program started at 7:30 p.m. and cost $1.00 for children and $1.50 for adults.

This year's fall play was well attended and also very well liked. It brought the audience many laughs and also a few tears.

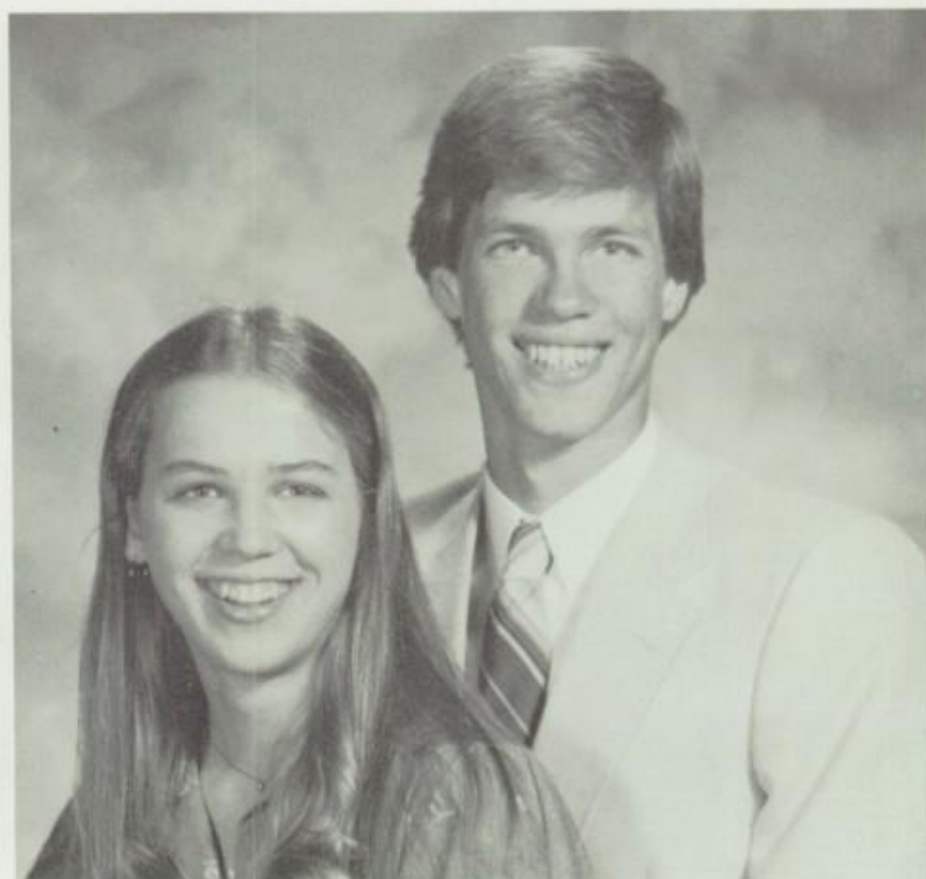

This year's fall play turned out to be a real success. Some of the members of the cast were as follows; OPPOSITE PAGE, TOP: Hannibal, Fairy May, and Jeffry, played by James Urbina, Karen Gardiner, and Rob Graham, sit comfortably while discussing Fairy May's endless beauty. "Live For Today," Senior Play Is Smashing Success

Futhering its efforts to win the Natani award, the senior class put on a sensational play containing drama, dance, and music. Ken Millet wrote the play as a memorial to Dean Hunt, the former Westwood student whose tragic death in his junior year inspired his class to win the Natani in their senior year.

The play centered around John, played by Sam Arnett, during his sophomore and junior years. The audience saw the spirit which John, as sophomore class president, evoked from every member of the class. His personality was greatly charismatic making his death extremely disturbing to his peers. "Live For Today", the title of the play, depicted the emotion a class can have for their leader and the devotion for that leader after his death.

Casting for the play was held in late November. Practices took place at cast and crew member's houses . . . Music for the play was written by senior, Rob Graham. Music advisors were Keith Watkins and Jeff Shain. Tom McPeck was props manager. Choreography was done by Donna Calder.

Rob Jarvis played second male lead as Mike. Some other class officers in the play were portrayed by Donna Calder, Mike Graham, Dave Posz, Brenda Roberts, and Brenda Weber. Kyle Scoresby, Curt Brown, and Paul Marchant played the bullies; Debbie Justus played John's mother. The part of the book store manager was played with a heavy and slightly familiar accent by Jim Poulin.

Any member of the senior class who had some desire to be involved in the play was able to. At least 45 seniors worked on cast, crew, properties, programs, or chorus.

The class that Dean Hunt was in was the only class to win the Natani award in their sophomore, junior, and senior years. This year's senior class has won the Natani in the passed two years and is hoping to become the second class in Westwood's history to win the award all three years.

Crazed Looney Leads Westwood To Madness

If you brake for animals, you would have loved the Junior play.

The Junior play presentation of "Its Just Routine" could be called an outstanding attempt at humor. A crazed lunatic, a "Mr. Microphone," and six dancing vegetables, outline a very nutty cast of characters.

The play developed slowly but left the audience curious as to what was to follow. The Crazy Looney, played by Jerry Winters, has escaped from an insane asylum.

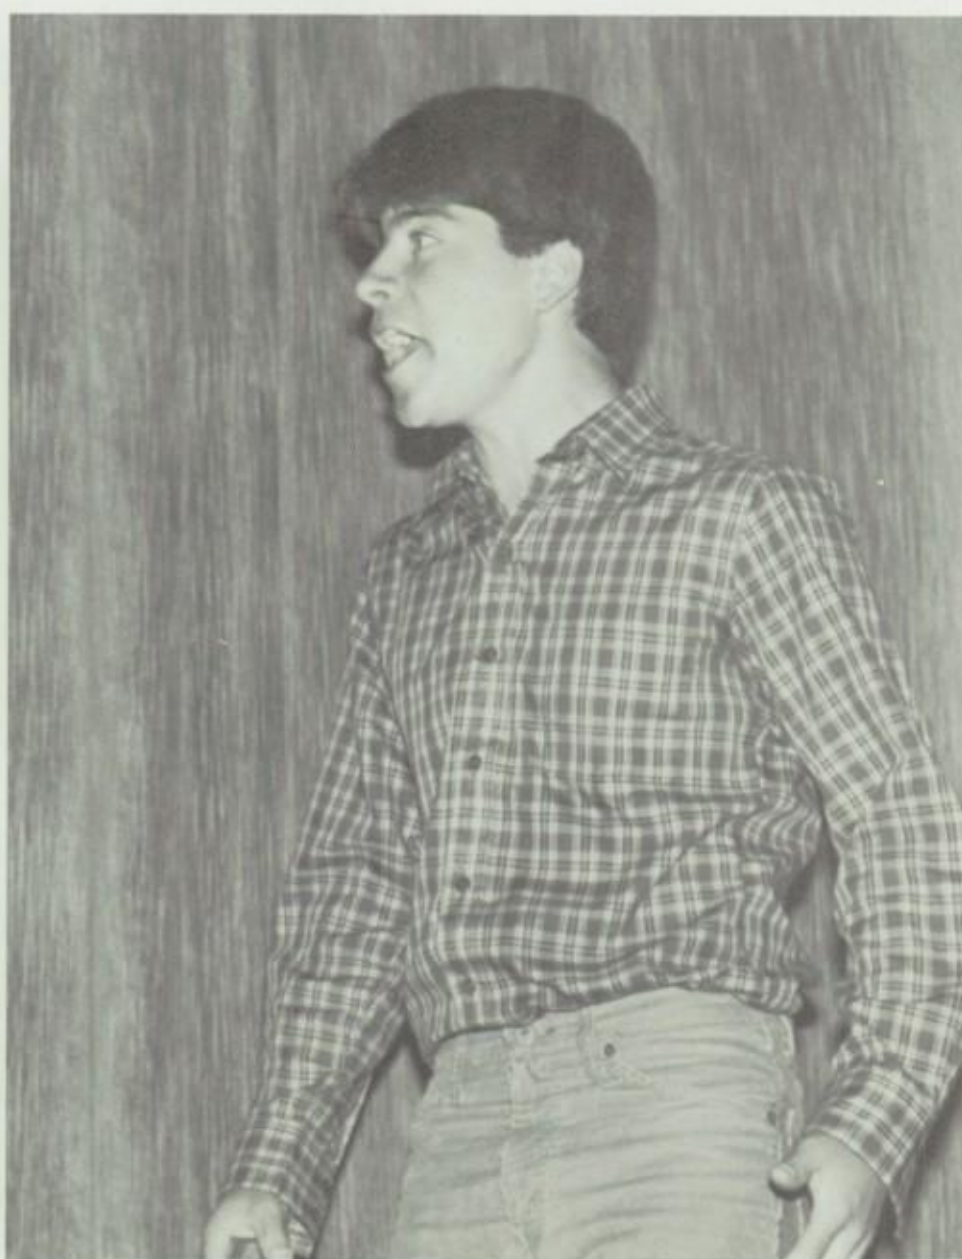

George Wellington, an average man, portrayed by Rick Mendoza, was mistakenly taken to the asylum in place of the Looney. There he met a very rejected man named Roscoe, played by James Urbina. Roscoe's only friend was a "Mr. Microphone". Wellington, although angered over his mistaken identity, befriended the loser Roscoe and comforted him.

Crazy Looney soon returned to the insane asylum after he destroyed Wellington's home and family. Wellington went insane after hearing of the crazy looney's destructions, and was admitted to the asylum.

Crazy Looney paid off Dr. Richardson, the chief administrator of the asylum played by Wayne Carroll. The money was for succeeding in a "Strange Game." "The Routine".

Promising Students Active In Community

Newly chartered this year, the Mayor's Youth Committee club is quickly gaining recognition. The general goals of this committee are to participate in community service and charitable projects, which are accomplished by requiring each member to work on the restoration of the Sistine House. These youth try to become familiar with the workings of the city government and find ways to participate as interested citizens. Promoting worthwhile entertainment and activities for the youth of Mesa as well as raising enough money to be self sufficient are two additional goals. Overall, the Mayor's Youth Committee's main objective is the promotion of a positive image of Mesa's youth.

The Committee member's activities included sponsoring a Student Government luncheon, holding a Veterans Day carnival at Pioneer Park, participating in a Pioneer Trek and Picnic, and attending a Youth in Government Day.

From the many applicants for Boy's State, Leonard Brunsdale, Rob Jarvis, John Clement, and Brian Pipes were chosen by the essays they wrote on the American Government. The girls who received this honor were Debbie Grace, Launette Ray, and Sandra Pittman, and were able to represent Westwood at the seminar held in Tucson. Boy's State met at Northern Arizona University in Flagstaff for the week long seminar.

Westwood's Ray, Recipient Of 1982 Junior Miss Title

Thirty high school girls competed for the title of Mesa Junior Miss 1982. Nine were from Westwood. This year's recipient was Launette Ray. The Scholastic Achievement award was given to Beth Fairfield.

The five judges Al Smith, Sam Ball, Dawn Rades, Jeanne Wright, and Rosemary Blackhurst were faced with a very difficult decision. The pageant was not based on beauty and poise alone. Just as important were scholastic achievement and personality. Scholastic Achievement was 15% of the overall format. A panel of qualified educators reviewed and rated transcriptions of grades and scores of scholastic tests and college entrance examinations. A ten minute individual judge interview was 35 percent. Judges looked for perception, a sense of values, clarity of expression, concern and ability in human relations. Twenty percent was on Creativity and Performing Arts. In this category originality and appearance were the main concerns. Physical Fitness was 15 percent of the judging. Contestants were judged on carriage in sportswear, stamina, posture, coordination, and agility. The final 15 percent went to poise and appearance. Carriage in evening dresses, grace, grooming, posture, and composure were dealt with here.

Warriors Successful; Season Ends Abruptly

The Westwood football season ended abruptly when the Warriors fell short by one yard to the Tempe Buffalos in a Colorado playoff. The playoff was to decide who would occupy the final playoff spot in the league. The Warriors found it a tough way to end a season, but their 7-3 record should not be forgotten.

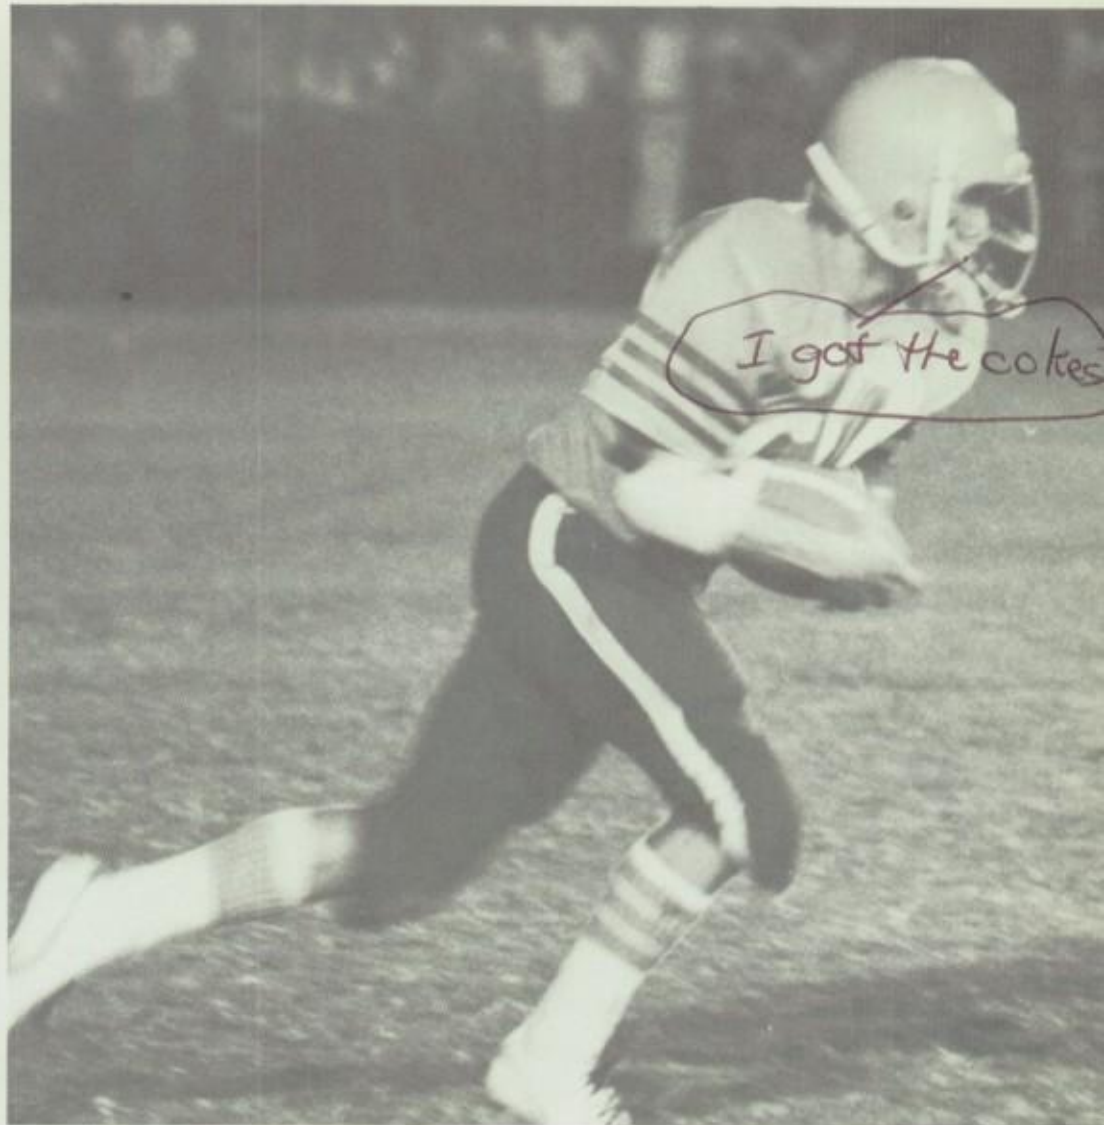

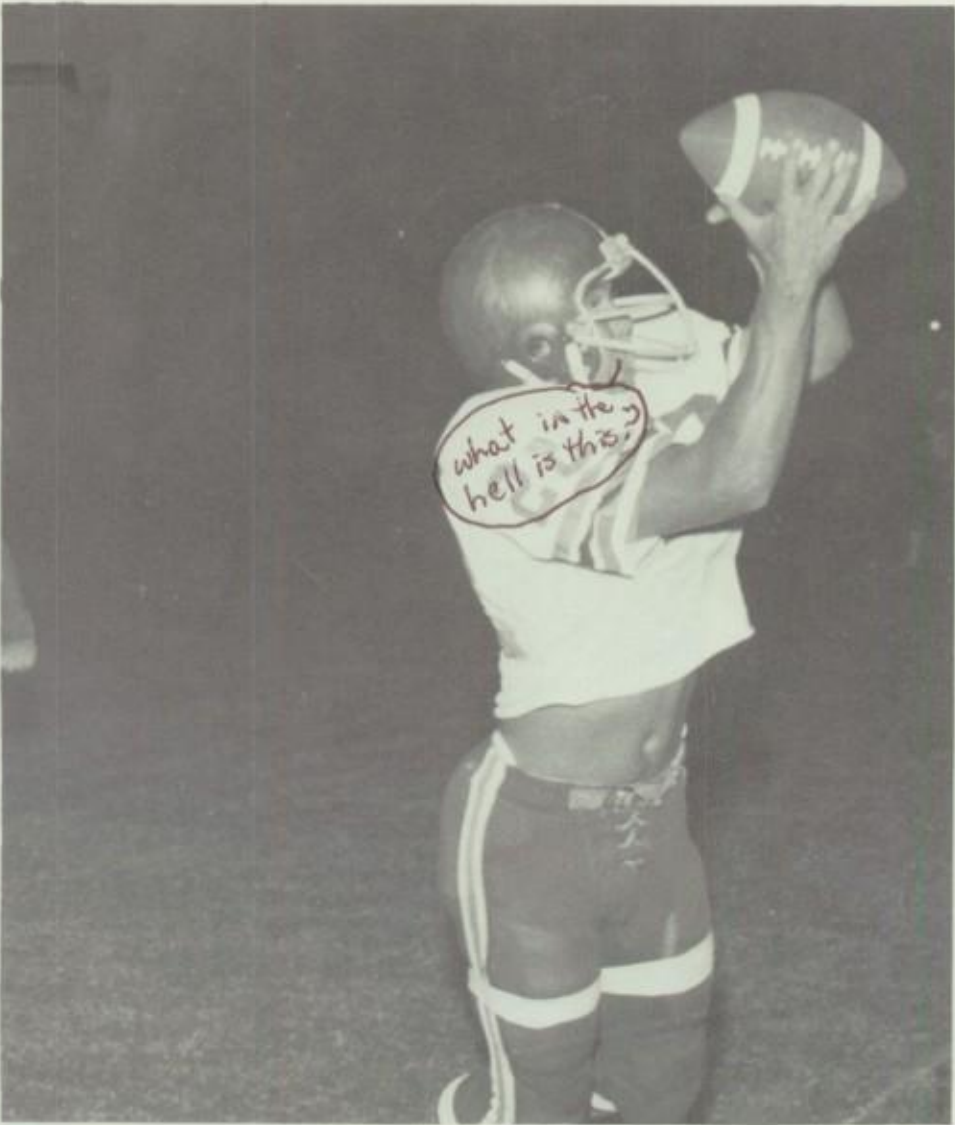

The team owned several big victories, the biggest being a 14-12 win over a previously undefeated Saguaro Sabercat football team. The Warriors also won the traditional rivalry with the Mesa High Jackrabbits. Quarterback Leonard Brunsdale, and receivers Gary Cullen and Tim Van Luven all handed in extraordinary performances in the Warriors victory, the Warriors are also to be credited with playing two of the most exciting games in the entire league. The two being the two wins over Chaparral and Chandler. Injuries were a problem in the backfield, with three of the starting backs suffering injuries during the season.

The Warriors showed a lot of composure in tough situations; they kept their cool in tough spots and got the job done. The Warriors played with a lot of heart, striving towards their dim chance to make the state playoffs. A successful season was the product of a lot of hard work and dedication, and the guys should be thanked.

Blues Keep Fighting; Hines' J.V.s Fare Well

"Much Improved." That was the general feeling about this year's Junior Blues football team. Their final record was 2-7, but this proved misleading. Led by quarterback Danny Chaffman, and other key players: Mike Akins and James Deacon, the blues were truly better than the record showed. Several heart-breaking losses dropped their overall record, but the games could have gone either way. The team always displayed a "never-say-die" attitude, and left high hopes for next year's varsity team.

The Junior Varsity team ended their season with a 4-3 record. This too, proved misleading, due to many close games. Lead by key players Brian Heimburg and Matt Riggs, the team sported a better record than in previous years. Westwood is looking forward to having these fine athletes participate in the future.

Female Swimmers Excel

The girls swim team was once again blessed with having depth in the team. Many of the swimmers were inexperienced, but having a lot of them helped when it came to adding up the total score of a meet. The girls swim team had a very slow start this year. "They just couldn't get the ball rolling," quoted Ms. Ensing, coach. As the season progressed, the hard workouts began to pay off. The swim team dual meet record wasn't that great, but when mid-season came around and the team started to shape up, they performed better and placed second in the Westwood Relays, second at divisionals, and fifth at state.

Westwood also had a very good diving team, consisting of Suzy Chambers, Eva Schnieder, Elena Garcia, Jennifer Mason, Diane Biggs, Michelle Binks, Leslie Allen, and Tracy Williams. Eva Schnieder and Leslie Allen both placed high in the divisional meet, which took them to state, where Eva took seventh place, and Leslie took thirteenth.

Badminton Birdies Fly

Once again, the Westwood Badminton Team had a successful season. The season record of both the varsity and J.V. badminton teams was that of eight wins and three losses. The captains of the badminton team, Sheri Bogard and Misti Davis, have contributed much leadership to the team since their entrance to Westwood. The varsity team participated in the Trevor Browne Invitational, but unfortunately did not perform as well as expected with both Misti Davis and Dee Dee Jackson losing in the semi-finals. In the divisional play-offs, "The girls looked super!", announced Coach Munoz. The girls won the divisional title this year, in which both team captains faced each other for the title. "That kind of situation is very unlikely to occur ever again", stated Coach Munoz. Even though the divisionals were fantastic, the State meet was disappointing. Misti Davis lost in her first round, and Dee Dee Jackson lost in the first round of the winners bracket after winning two rounds of the losers bracket. Next season promises to be outstanding, with many returning players.

Volleyballers Do Well

The coach of our Varsity Volleyball Team, Cindy Demarest, believes that the team did very well this year. The girl's varsity dual meet record was twelve wins and four losses this season. The girl's volleyball team participated in the Shadow Mountain Invitational in which they beat out both Xavier, and Shadow Mountain for the championship. The girl's varsity team also went to the divisional playoffs where our team got second in the league but were beaten by Chandler and were not eligible to go to the state playoffs.

The Varsity squad consisted of seven seniors and three juniors. The captains of the varsity team were Robin Green and Sophia Goudeau. Both played volleyball for Westwood all three years they've been here, and this season demonstrated much leadership and hard work. Coach Demarest is worried about next year's team because there will be only three varsity players returning, and the rest of the team will have to be picked from the returning J.V. players.

Cross Country Succeeds

Coach Barb Anderes was surprisingly pleased with the way the cross country team ran this year. The girls cross country season record was twelve wins and two losses. "The year started off very well and stayed that way the whole season," remarked Anderes. At the Prescott Invitational, the team placed second overall with every girl placing and receiving a medal. The girls also ran well at the divisional meet, placing fifth. When the team went to State, they placed ninth. Out of one hundred and fifty participating athletes in the State meet, Westwood's Kim Prince came in at 28th, Robin Judy placed 37th, and Teresa Swisher was the 43rd runner to finish.

The top eight runners for the Westwood varsity cross country team this season were sophomore Kim Prince, junior Robin Judy, senior Teresa Swisher, junior Susan Shill, sophomore Kristy Lavender, senior Joan Bracken, senior Val Miller, and sophomore Jeannette Davidson. Coach Anderes is looking forward to next year's team because there will be many returning runners.

Golfers Show Strength

Under the skilled hands of Coach Mike Dant, the Girls Golf team finished their season with a winning record, including seven wins and four losses. The team had an outstanding time at the Yuma Invitational; for the first time in Westwood's history, the team took first place. Katie Petrie took the second place honors. The team also played exceptionally well at their divisional meet, which advanced them to state, where the team was able to place fifth. "Each girl performed at her best; they were all outstanding," remarked Coach Dant. Lisa Hase and Katie Petrie, the only two senior players, were the top two performers.

Westwood's Boys Golf Team was coached by Erv Reid. The boy's team didn't have a very good year. The team participated in the Kofa Golf Invitational, but, unfortunately, didn't place very high. The team also went to divisionals, where they placed tenth. This made them eligible for the state tournament. Although the team didn't do as well as expected this season, Coach Reid is already looking at next year's team.

Gunnell Leads The Pack; J.V.'s Undefeated

Westwood's Varsity cross country team had a successful season, placing first in Divisionals, first in the Prescott Invitational, second place in the Las Vegas Invitational and seventh place in state. Senior Brent Gunnell led the Warriors to their season record of 16 and 1.

Placing first at the Prescott Invitational and all of the other meets except for two, Senior Brent Gunnell finished the season with a 15-2 record. Other top runners were Martin Finnegan and Dave McMasters. When asked for a quote, the threesome said, "We jam."

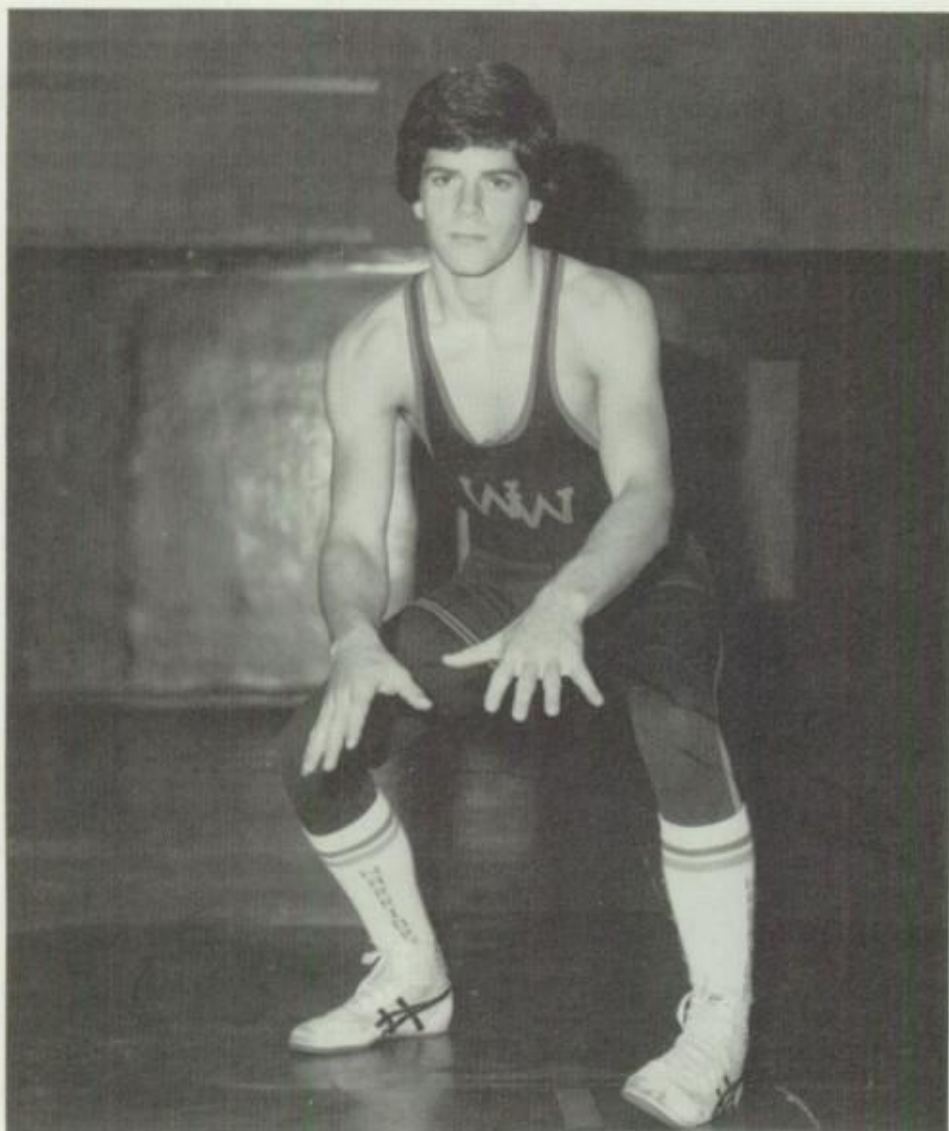

Junior Varsity had another record breaking season of 17-0, finishing the season first in the city meet. Their top runners were Danny Cambell, Mike Cook and Robert Finnegan.

Cross country coach, Mike Gray, was pleased with both Varsity and J.V.'s season records. "I'm proud to be a part of this team. All of our hard work really paid off. Everyone contributed his share of time and effort."

Wrestlers Wage War

Established as one of the toughest sports by the Presidents association, wrestling has been going strong ever since. Ever since the early Roman days wrestling has been a way of showing who has superior strength and knowledge. Wrestling is not a sport of just bronze as most people are led to believe, there are many things to learn such as the types of moves used to take your opponent down to the mat, or to turn him over on his back for the pin. You will learn cradles, escapes, and reversals, you will know when and how to use them, you'll learn one point, two point, three and five point moves. Wrestling is not one of the most popular sports in many areas of the country; wrestling is just getting started. Matches can be very exciting but a lot of people don't realize that. There is suspense and thrills, a Westwood wrestler may be losing one minute and within a matter of seconds he will turn around and pin his opponent.

This year the Westwood Wrestlers had an exceptionally good season, with the varsity finishing with a record of 8 wins and 2 losses, and J.V. had a 5 and 3 record. This years most outstanding wrestlers were Chip Parks who finished this year taking the state championship title in his weight division along with a 15 and 1 record. Other winning warriors were Jay Baily who finished with a 22 and 5 record. Russ Oliver with a 22 and 4, Rob Grasser 21 and 2 and 2, and Tom Torrez with a 20 and 5. And Finally we owe a special thanks to the coaches, Mr. Dave Murphy and Mr. Jim Kelly. Good luck next year guys.

J.V.s And Varsity Roll To Impressive Seasons

The varsity basketball team surprised a lot of people by advancing to the divisional playoffs at Chaparral High School. The Warriors began the season slowly dropping their first game to St. Marys, but as the season progressed they did nothing but improve. The team began to work together, and things started to happen. The Warriors did not compile an impressive overall record, but their league record was a very surprising 8-4. The season was a surprise to most, but not to the players. They knew that when they were at their best, they could play with anyone. A contribution was made by every player on the team, this team also rolled to a successful season. Ending the season with a 15-4 record they were a tough game for any team. The JV team also had a contribution from every member of the team. The team was sparked by the offense of Brian Heimburg and Matt Riggs, but all five starters made a significant contribution. Both of our basketball teams had successful seasons, but they had to work hard to get them. Their hard work paid off, and were looking to next year.

W.W. Runner-Up In State

The 1981-1982 Girls Varsity and JV Softball Teams had outstanding seasons. The JV's ended their season with an 11-5 record. Some of the JV players that stood out during the season were Jutta Schneider, shortstop, and Juanita Creech, somewhat of a versatile player. The two were not only excellent defensive players but also top hitters for the team. Tina Joiner also did a good job as catcher and Roseann Geer is being counted on to come up and take over the pitching on Varsity next year. Other players also did a great job and one of the strong points of the team was their spirit. They backed each other all the way with Coach Jones who took over the coaching job at the last minute and did a great job.

The Varsity, for the first time, took the Central Division Title after defeating all 3 teams they played with shutouts. They ended their season with a 24-1 record. Misty Davis led the team with all 24 wins, including 14 shutouts. The team played Maryvale in the quarter-finals of the state tournament defeating them 3-1 in the eighth inning. In the semi-finals the girls remained undefeated after downing Cholla 2-1. Unfortunately Westwood was defeated in the state finals 4-0 by Greenway.

The team was led by Coach Thomas who did an excellent job. The two players to be looking for next year will be Ingrid McTaggart and Joanne Quintanares.

Cole Coaches Well; Season Ends Successfully

Coach Cole and his boys soccer team had another successful season this year, but it didn't come easy. The competition was tougher than ever. The team started off quick, but were slowed a little by the tougher teams they began to face. Even with the tougher teams the Warriors always gave their opponents as much as they could handle. Led by seniors Eric Engstrom, Rob Jarvis, and Darin Huffaker the team could always be counted on for tough matches and exciting plays. Coach Cole did a good job with this years team. He helped them blend more and rely on a team effort not on individual performances. They did play well as a team. Several players did not score that many goals, but they made up for it by getting a lot of assists. This was the main reason for the teams success. The team did not reach their goal of winning the state championship, but their season was still a great one.

Dant Leads Netters; Winning Year Accomplished

The Westwood Tennis team put forth another winning effort this year under the coaching of Mr. Mike Dant.

David Chambers had the right combination of excellent strokes and a good attitude. Mr. Dant stressed the importance of on-court composure during the whole season. He said, "We worked really hard at keeping people in control of themselves."

The season started on the 16th of February. Divisionals were held on April 22nd and 23rd and the state tournament was on April 30th and May 1st. There were 20 members on the 1981-82 tennis squad, four of them were freshman, 8 were sophomores, 5 were juniors, and 3 were seniors.

The tennis team was another sensational part of Westwood's outstanding athletic department.

Name Of The Game Is Love

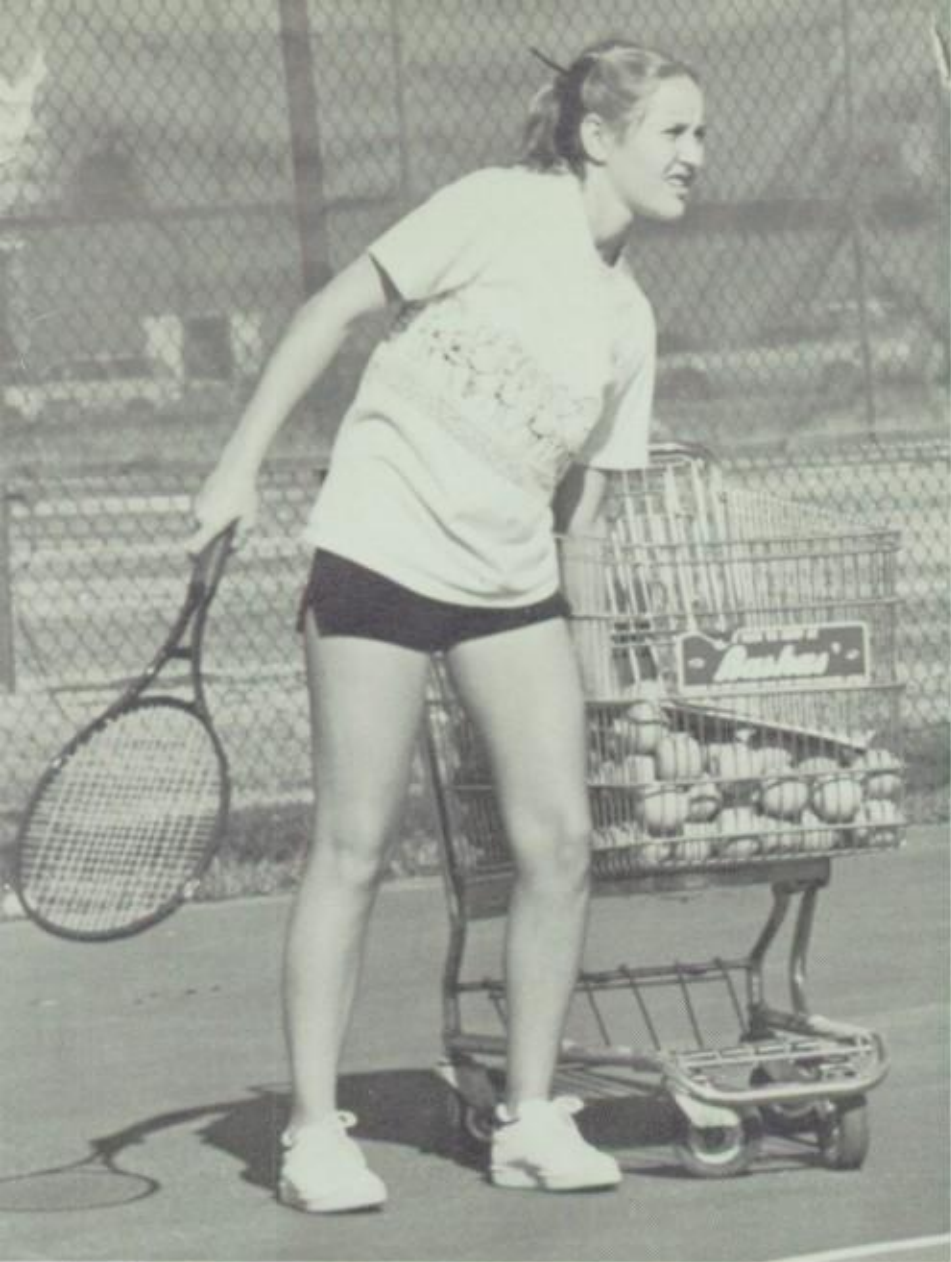

The Westwood girls tennis team was truly a talented team. Many of the team members had been playing tennis for years. All the girls took their game seriously, which is apparent when they played.

Tryouts were held late in January and a team was selected. The team usually consists of a few Seniors and Juniors, while Sophomores make up the rest of the ladder. Challenge matches were held throughout the season to determine player rankings.

Matches were played against Tempe, Chandler, Scottsdale, and Mesa schools. The Varsity team consisted of six players which formed three doubles teams. Though tennis is considered a solitary sport, team work is required. Team work also helps a team work well together. Westwood had this team spirit which enabled it's girls tennis team to be considered true winners.

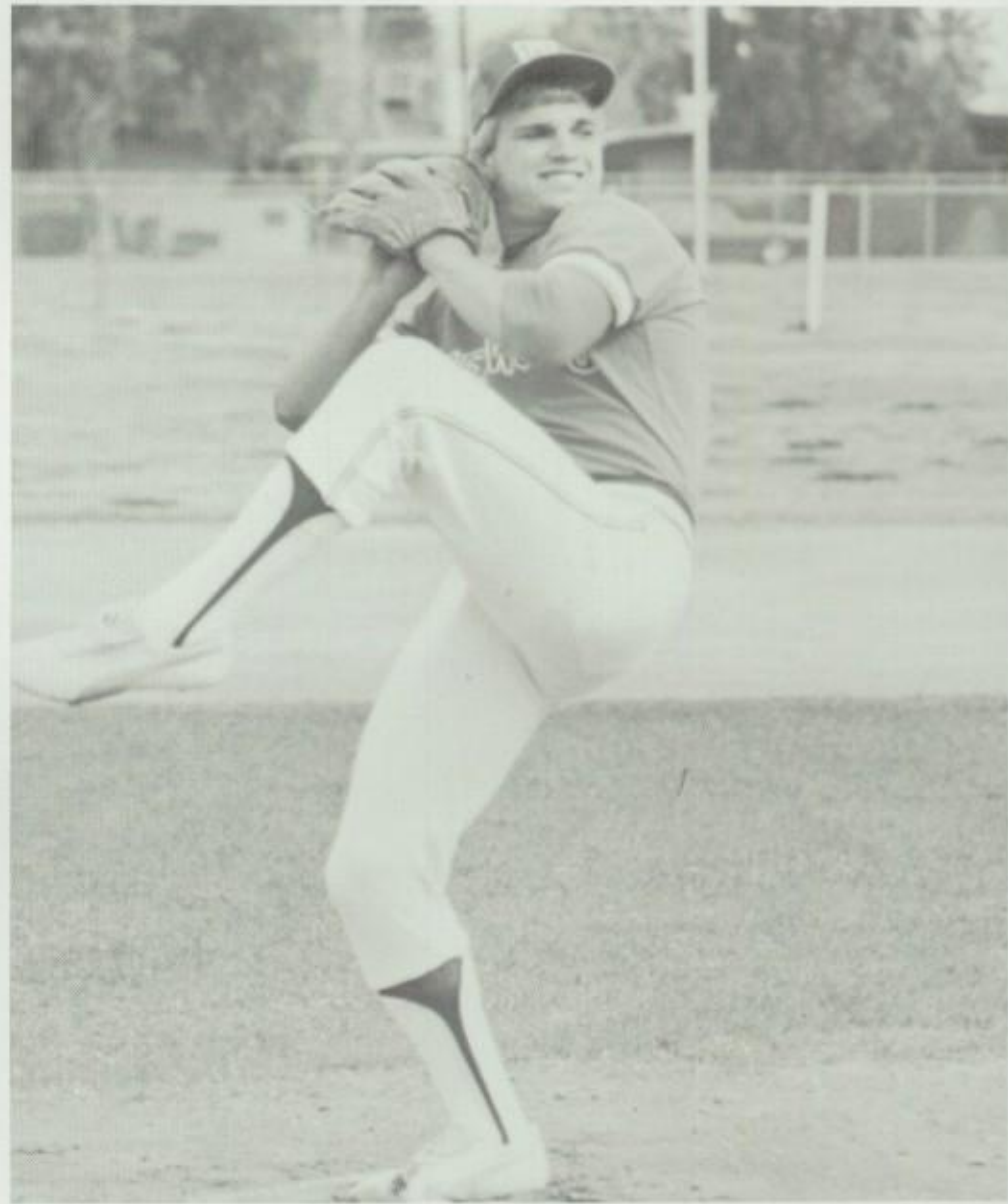

This years girls tennis team was a young one. It consisted of two Seniors, two Juniors, and two Sophomores. Coach Munoz can expect a great team in years to come, with all the young and talented players which were on the team this year.

Swimmers Uphold Tradition Drivers Improve Immensely

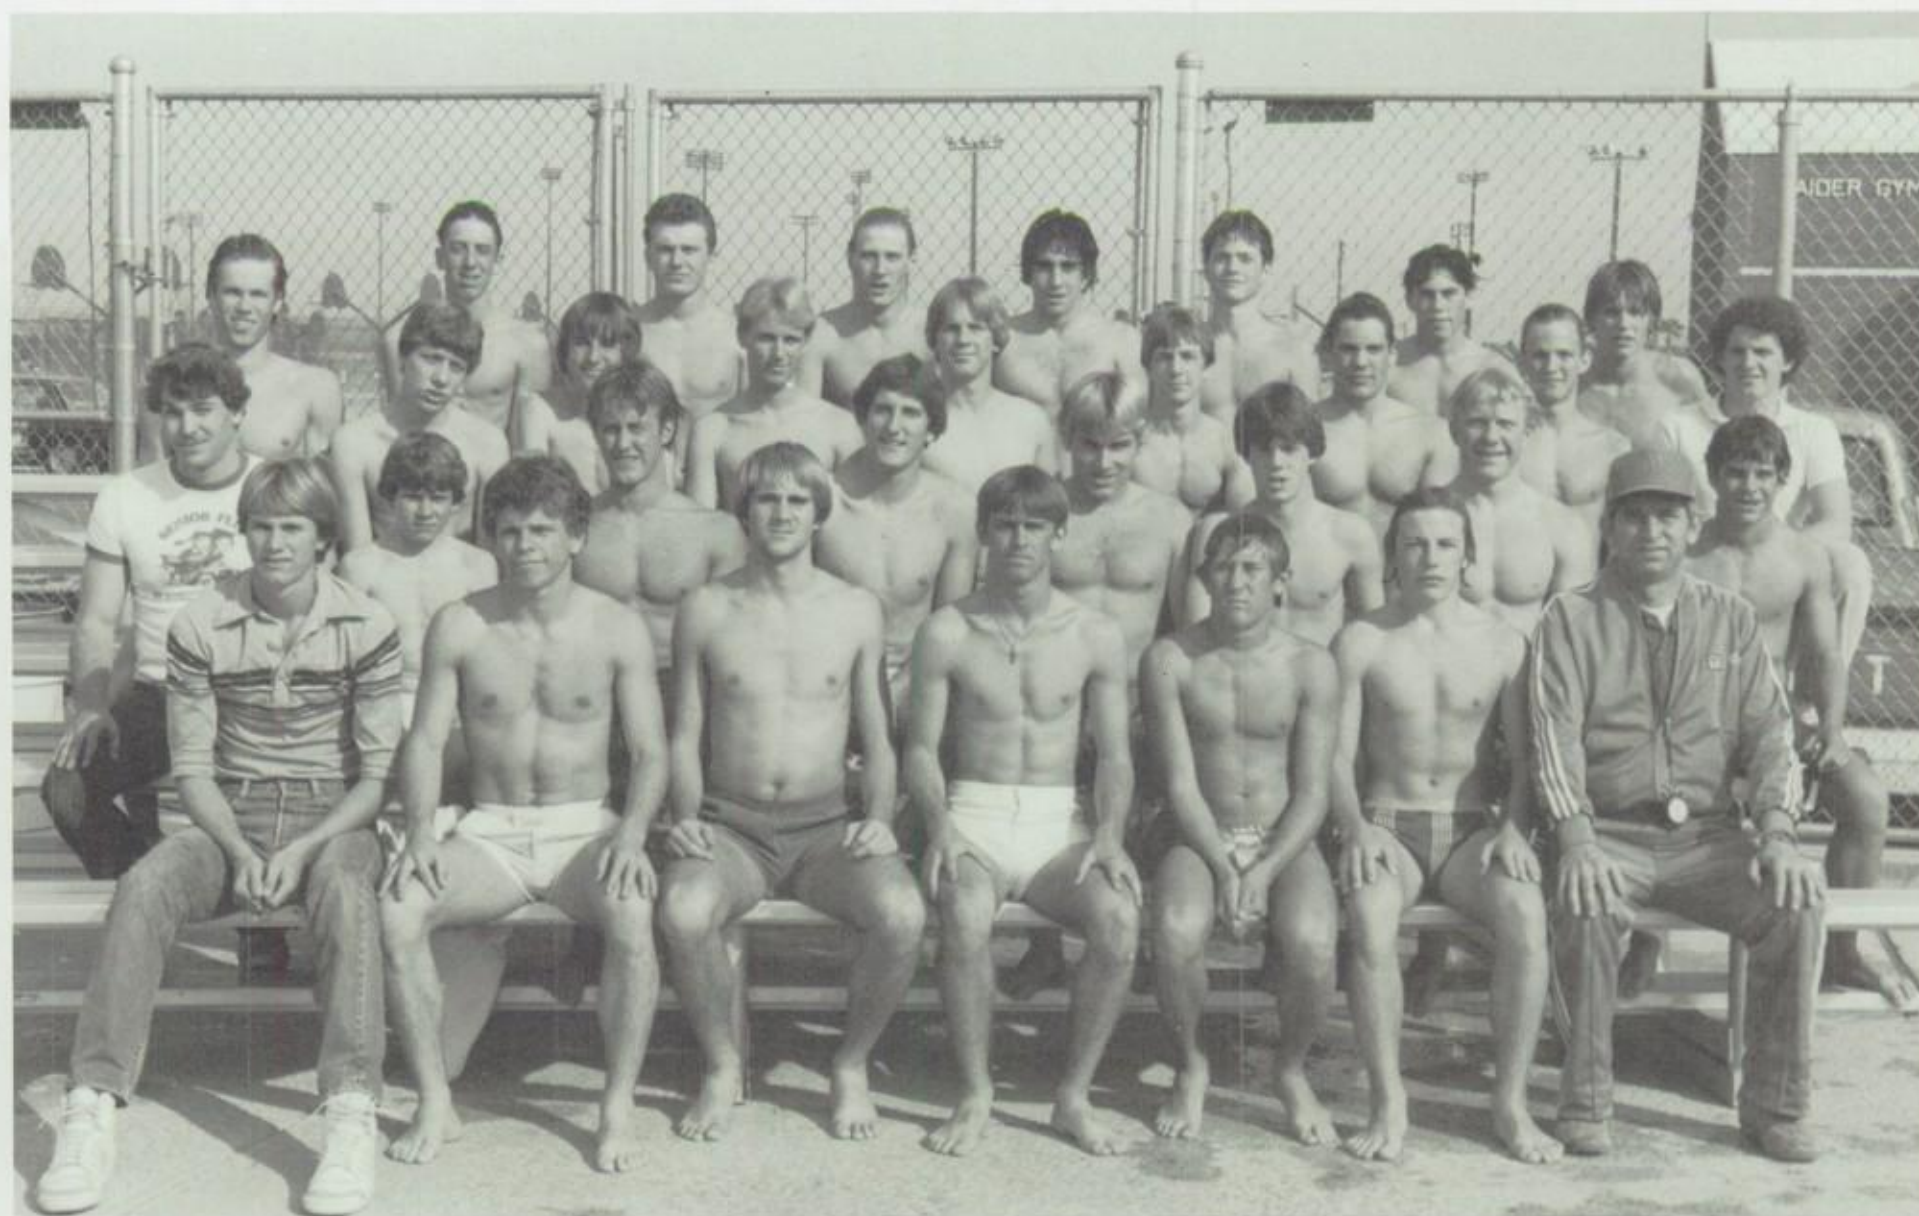

Hard Work! That's what was required to be a member of the boys' swimming and diving teams, and the endurance of this year's teams proved they could take it.

According to Coach Craig Cummins, swimming instructor, this year's team worked hard to keep up with the Westwood tradition of producing fine quality swimmers. Coach Cummins also added that this hard work should lead them to another Central Division Championship while battling such tough teams like Mesa High, Mountain View and Coronado.

Bill Harris, Gary Epp, John Webster and Tony Poleo were just a few of the many members who added to the talented Warrior team this year. This talent came as a result of many long hours of practice after school.

Seniors Steve Channel and Darin Huffaker also added to this year's fine diving team.

"Class Unity" Is Theme Of Our Student Council

This year's Student council theme was "class unity"; that meant that the Sophomore, Junior, and Senior classes were to participate in friendly competition instead of having an "all-out battle."

Student council was in charge of all fund raising events, and in order to sell items for any group, a vote was taken in student council. Parliamentary procedure was the method used in all voting actions.

Council held five meetings a week, with John Clement, Student Body President, conducting the informal meetings three times a week. Launette Ray, the Student Body Vice President, conducted the formal meetings the remaining two days. Debbie Grace had the appointment of Secretary, and Suzy Chambers was the Treasurer.

Student council provided the students with the opportunity to fully understand how the political system of this country operates. This knowledge could be beneficial if the students wished to further their careers in politics.

Our Dancers Perform Well At Functions

Yes, Westwood does have a Dance Club, and yes, it is open to any Westwood student on campus. The Dance Club performs in many different activities during the year, such as dancing in the Curtain Time Assembly. In December the Dance Club puts on their own dance assembly. The Club was invited to the Arizona State Fair to perform, and also to The International Week for Handicapped at Mesa Community College. The Dance Club also choreographed Mexican dances for Spanish Club, the Club also helps in the choreographing of the school play. The Dance Club also puts on an end of the year dance concert.

Westwood also has a Dance Production in which a person has to audition. The Dance Production holds dances for Elementary schools. The Dance Production also hosts The Artists in Residents, in which Arthur Hall taught Afro-American and Modern Dancing. Arthur Hall's Dance Company comes each year and performs in Mesa. Also appearing was Connie Weppworth, who taught master dance classes. These members of the Dance Production are also many of the members in the Dance Club.

Dear Robert, it's been absolutely great knowing you in printing this year! Thanks for nailing my screens & telling me funny jokes. I hope you have a fantastic summer & I wish you all luck in the future. Hope to see you next year. Don't work too hard & never let the assholes of the world get you down - it's just not worth the hassle. Love ya,
Carol Jean

Artists Bring Beauty; Mural Appreciated

Art isn't just drawing or painting; art is self-expression. Here at Westwood the art department realizes this and gives every student his or her chance to do so. There are a variety of classes offered and they range from ceramics to photography.

This year's art club project was painting the beautiful mural in the boys' gym. This project included the design, the color coordination and the supervision of the art club sponsor Steve Laney and Audrey Robinson.

The artists each year put on an arts and crafts show, where they exhibit the things they have made and put them up for sale. The money earned is divided between the artists themselves and the art department.

The art club also spent much of their time designing and silk screening the club's T-shirts. Since this was the first year the art club actually chartered themselves as a club, we at the publications room welcome them aboard.

Choir Achieves Success; Snow-Birds Enjoy Songs

Walking into the Honor Choir practice room is like walking into a cheese and sausage factory. Why? Perhaps because selling these products was just two ways that the choir members used to raise money for their many trips and concerts.

They sang at a memorial service at the local Elks Club, performed on a model runway at the Scottsdale Regency Hotel, practiced in school concerts and the choir toured a variety of sights throughout the year. The choir entertained young and old alike, while performing at the assemblies and at rest homes, they made a lot of people happy.

Honor Choir, under the direction of Mr. Jeff Harris, put in many long hard hours of practice throughout the year. Besides the regular class period, the choir often came back at night and on weekends to perfect their numbers. The month of Dec. could have been called "Snow Bird Month" because the choir entertained at the countless mobile home parks. Practically every night the holiday season the choir was booked up.

Jubilant Warriors Sing; Concerts Enjoyed By All

Concert Choir, the largest group at Westwood, combines the necessary talent, ability, and desire of certain junior and senior Westwood students to form a truly outstanding musical organization.

Led by Mr. Jeff Harris, choral director, the group performed for a wide variety of audiences at many different locations. The choir's most important and well-known performance, Cantic in Carols, was once again traditionally presented at Christmas. This well prepared and rehearsed concert succeeded in capturing the attention and enthusiasm of the crowd, which was large in numbers.

The Westwood Girl's Choir is another example of the fine choral ability of Westwood students. This group, composed of a mixture of sophomore, junior, and senior girls, is able to provide a variety of music. They combine a perfect choral group sopranos and altos which enables them to have a full sound.

Apache Band Moves On; Jazz Jives With Times

Music has always been one of the strong departments here at Westwood. When students enter the 4th grade in the Mesa School Systems they are exposed to musical instruments of various types. Under the leadership of various teachers throughout the years students learn to appreciate instrumental music. As they enter Jr. High, band and orchestra are formed. Soon the students enjoy the thrill of marching down Main St. in a Veterans Day Parade. They hear the crowds applauding them and standing at attention as the American flag goes by and they play God Bless America.

As high school approaches, young musicians diversify and enter specialized groups like Apache Band and Jazz Band. Once again rehearsal follows rehearsal as these people strive for perfection, and under the direction of Mr. Bob Cunningham success comes rapidly. Westwoods, Jazz Band is often called upon to perform, not only at school but at civic functions as well. When the Storer Cable TV Company needed a band for its' grand opening they came directly to Mr. Cunningham and his jazz group. Throughout the year members of Apache Band formed with the Warrior Band and displayed their talents at football games where they entertained thousands. Yes, this is music, the music of Mesa, the music of our Apache and Jazz Bands.

Marchers Rate Highly; Warrior Band Steps Up

The Warrior Marching Band, which consists of 106 members, played at all football games, pep rallies, and in two parades this year. They attended ASU Dand Day and for the 13th straight year they received a superior rating, for the 4th straight year.

Drum Major and Band Council President, Bob Bamrick, and the band council which consists of; Annalee Scott, Amy Jensby, Donna Besch, Sidney Merritt, Kim James, Josh Goff, Darrin Wilstead, Bob Calkins, Carol Rebeka, Eve Hansen, and Christine Ziobrowski organized the band and were able to raise enough money to buy a video-tape machine. They will also be getting new marching uniforms for next year.

The Warrior Concert Band which consists of 71 members performed 4 concerts this year. They also raised enough money to take a trip to the San Diego Band Festival which was the highlight of their year. The members of the Concert Band are also members of the Marching Band.

Strings Sound Superb Throughout The Year!

Orchestra I, II, and Showcase Strings really gave us some great sounds this year. Throughout the year they put on many outstanding performances for our school, under the direction of Mr. Engelsman. They worked hard at practices daily, but found it all paid off after those exciting fundraising events, and parties.

The small twenty member group of Showcase Strings performed almost seven or eight times a month for almost every type of organization. They were able to show their fine talent at exclusive places such as, Ramada Inn, The Biltmore, Paradise Valley and Mesa Country Clubs.

Symphony Orchestra once again was one of the most outstanding and most respected groups in our state. They also had a busy schedule performing for different audiences.

These groups show what fine talent Westwood has to offer our school and community. Good job!!

School Clubs Work To Improve The Future

National Honor Society is an elite group of Juniors and Seniors. The members must achieve and maintain a 1.5 grade average or better. To be a member of the Honor Society the student must have leadership qualities, and participate in many service projects. The service projects are parties for the children at Parkway, decorating a Christmas tree for a rest home, and volunteering to work in the child crisis center.

Meetings are held montly before and after school. Dues are paid and a newsletter is circulated in each meeting. Various members contribute to the newsletter by writing poems and articles. The articles are usually about scholarships, dedication, to work, and literature.

National Honor also organizes many school projects such as carnation sales, decorating the halls for Christmas, and working with the people in accent on Academics. Providing such help benefits the community by preparing future leaders.

Model United Nations members are preparing themselves for National Government. The members meet and discuss the problems concerning the world such as Iran and oil prices. They prepared for a Tucson convention which was held February 12th and 13th. There were 4,000 delegates from Arizona, New Mexico, California, and the country of Mexico. The six delegates from Westwood this year will represent Italy at the general assembly.

Lights, Camera, Action, For Talented Actors

The Stagecrew for this year had seventeen members, one of the largest crews Westwood has ever had. Six of the members were female. The stage crew ran assemblies, pep rallies, school plays, and other community activities, such as the Ririe Woodbury Dance, and the Junior Miss Pageant.

Westwood's stage crew had a reputation as being the best high school stage crew in Mesa, and possibly in the state of Arizona. Westwood was the first to be recommended when a company from out of state wished to perform in the local area.

The Theater director was Jay Dean Jones and the stage manager was Jim Poulin.

Masque and Dagger was the name for the drama club here at Westwood. The Club was an honorary dramatic organization. A student had to have been eligible to try out by having accumulated a minimum of ten points. Each point represented a minimum of ten hours' work in some aspect of the theater.

Tryouts consisted of the student presenting a brief scene, dramatic reading, or pantomime, for about two or three minutes. The the "old" members voted and selected the "new" members of Masque and Dagger.

Clubs Promote Language

The German Club participated in all kinds of activities throughout the year. They worked on Christmas halls. They loved eating at German Restaurants and occasionally cooking German food. During the year they sold pretzels and other goodies, to raise funds for a senior who wishes to study German in college. These funds are given as a scholarship to help promote the study of German.

The French Club also enjoys the activities that they do throughout the year. They worked on Christmas halls and they also sponsored a family during the Christmas season. They participated in AFS week and in Foreign Language week. They loved eating at Cafe' Casino, and on Halloween they had a Masquerade ball.

The Spanish Club also had a scholarship that they offered to any senior who wished to study Spanish in college. They raised the money by selling candy. They participated in the Foreign Language fair and had a lot of fun doing so.

Through the study of a foreign language a student learns such things as the history of a different country, the diverse lifestyles, and sometimes similarities that exist. The foreign languages prove to be a strong part of Westwood.

Agricultural Clubs Dig In

The Future Farmers of America is a National Youth Organization designed to establish leadership citizenship and cooperation. Each F.F.A. member must be enrolled in a vocational agricultural class. The F.F.A. enables the members to obtain knowledge and skill in the agricultural related occupation that can be put to use in later years.

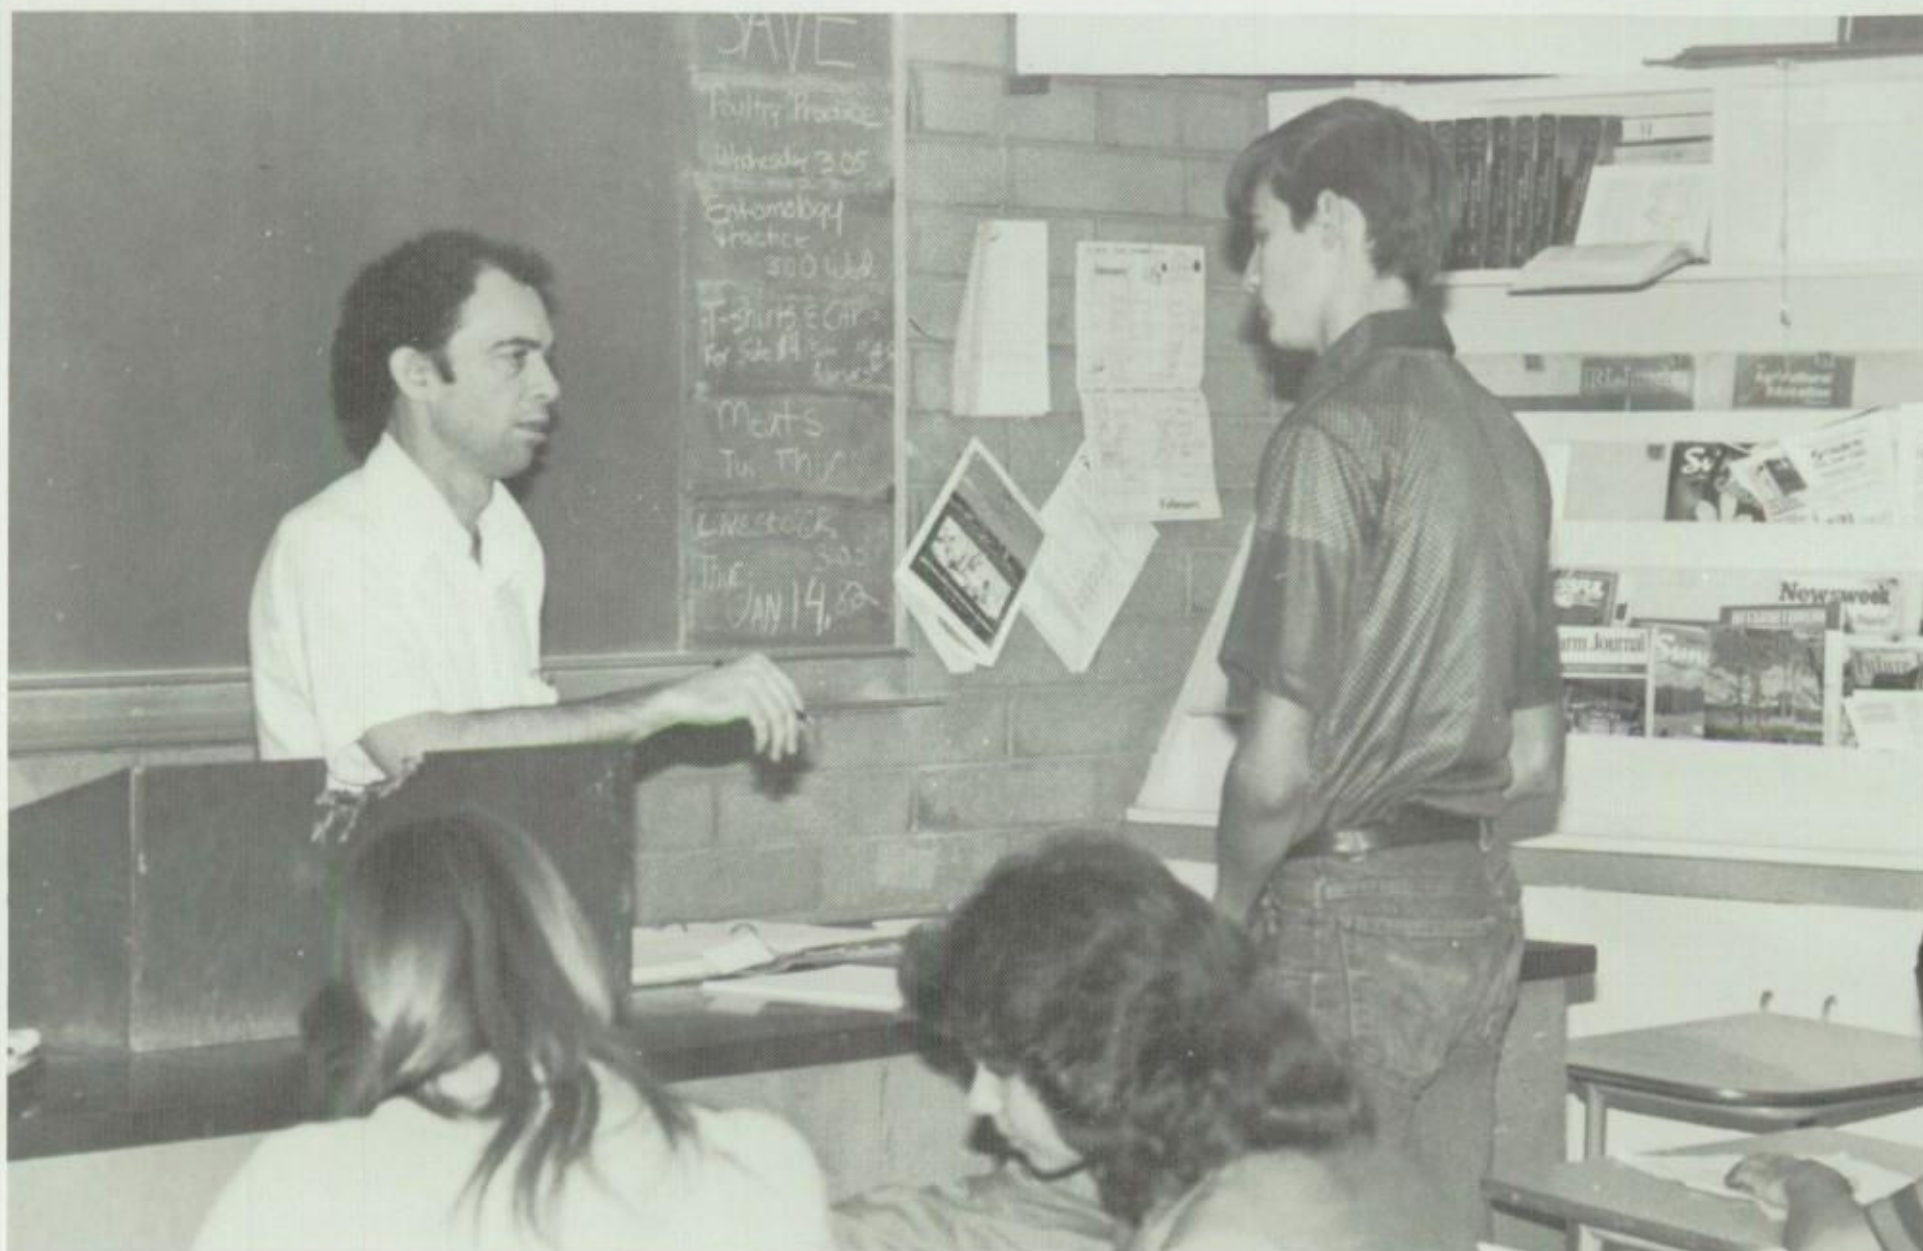

F.F.A. members obtain leadership by participating in club activities such as public speaking, parliamentary procedure, judging teams, holding an office or being a committee chairman. Citizenship and cooperation are established through the involvement of F.F.A. members in their community such as BOAC projects (Building our American Communities). Safety programs, woodcuts, and other projects that involve school and community.

Being an F.F.A. member for the past four years and now serving as chapter President has developed my leadership and public speaking abilities. By participating on the soils, cotton, parliamentary procedure, meats, and poultry judging teams, I have developed my vocational skills.

The F.F.A. has also given me the opportunity to have numerous friends and acquaintances throughout the state and even the nation.

I will always be grateful and thankful for the F.F.A. and for what it has done for me in developing me personally to be a better citizen in the community, state, and nation.

Mind Games Of Tomorrow

Among all the clubs of Westwood High two of the lesser known clubs would be the Speech and Debate club, and/or the Computer-Hike and Bike clubs. These two clubs are far from being similar in many ways, although they do aid in the students future a great deal, in many different ways. There is a great need for computer technicians and/or programers. The computer club helps students gain knowledge and at the same time have a lot of fun in doing so. When one is working with these sophisticated machines they allow one to do many things from programing to playing games. While the computer club gives aid in the business world, the Hike and Bike group gives aid in the outdoors, on how to take care of oneself say in case one were to get lost the skills and knowledge that one received in the training and practice of being in this club may save ones life one day, and besides a hike in the country can be a beautiful thing. Mr. Lewis the sponsor of these clubs must surely realize the importance of these organizations.

The Speech and Debate club gives aid in creativity and individuality. This club helps these students in many different ways. The speech and debate club gives people the chance to use their Writing Abilities along with learning how to be objective about different things. Writing a speech is one thing but getting up in front of the audience is another. This club helps the student by giving them shortcuts in writing and other skills these shortcuts will help the student in his future field. So we give our deepest thanks to Mrs. Elsner for a job well done.

Active Groups Revel

This year's Health Club had a busy year. Under the direction of Mrs. Eleanor Ucci and Debbie O'Rourke, the club went on field trips and invited many speakers to come and instruct the members on health related careers. The club had many goals this year which included the task of informing the public on the dangers of smoking and the use of drugs, and urging them to get the needed vaccinations.

Westwood's Ski Club had a slow beginning this year but early in 1982 ran into a virtual blizzard. Ski resorts throughout Arizona, Colorado, and Utah received much needed snow early in January. The Ski Club took their annual Purgatory trip over the 15, 16, and 17, of January. They also made many smaller excursions during the winter to Sunrise Ski Resort in the White Mountains. The club found skiing to be a great "Get Away."

Sponsor Ned Jolly had his hands full with many novice members, but with his help and the help of many experienced members, they became skilled skiers. With the help and organization of all the members and sponsors, the 1981-82 ski season was a great success.

Clubs Build Friendships

"There's a place for everyone and no student need feel that he is alone," so stated head counselor Jack Frontone. No statement could be more true. For Westwood can boast a club for everyone.

For example the Indian Club lead by Mrs. Eleanor Ucci raised money by cooking hot Indian fry bread at one of our home football games. They held regular meetings and attended cultural events.

Many Westwood students were also pleased with the arrival of a new club. The Science Fiction Club, sponsored by Mrs. Linda Bordwell, held regular meetings. Members challenged each other's imagination with a fantasy game known to them as "Dungeons and Dragons." Club President Adam Taylor, said the game is rather complicated and very challenging.

This year's Ebony Club had a very busy schedule. The club, under the leadership of Anthony Harris, attended many cultural events. They participated in a cultural day at the Washington Activity Center where each group prepared foods of their heritage. Members also attended dance workshops at the W.A.C. Black Theater Troupe presentations and Mesa Community College's annual Black Heritage Week were also included in this years activities.

Hopes For The Future Rest In VICA & HERO

Chefs, waiters, waitresses and hostesses, make up an exciting club known as the Home Economics Related Club or HERO. The sponsor this year is Vera Smith. This club has helped students to receive creative and adventurous careers. Members of HERO receive credit while working on an off campus job. HERO sponsors many different activities throughout the year and is very active in the school.

Look out world, here comes the new welders, dental assistants, nurses and construction workers of tomorrow! Vocational Industrial Clubs of America known as VICA is sponsored by Larry Judd. VICA is responsible for many activities at Westwood such as balloon rides on the Stapley Mabry hot air balloon, and mouth-watering breakfasts in our very own cafeteria. Larry Judd feels very honored and proud to help these students see the world as it is today. The club learns to find out about the jobs that are in the world today. They also learn to cope in getting a job in the fast moving society.

Both clubs help support and sponsor many of the activities that help to make Westwood what it is today.

Cooperative Office Education Stepping Stone To Business

Cooperative Office Education provides for the coordination of classroom study and on-the-job training, each complementing the other. The office instruction is considered as an extension of the instruction which is received in the classroom. The class is divided into two groups, A period and first hour. The president for A period is Dan Evans and Vice-president is Lori Bigler. The president for first hour is Julie Kloecker and the vice-president is Tori Maloney. The club sponsors many fund raisers throughout the year. Chocolate Santas at Christmas, chocolate bunnies at Easter, licorice and Westwood Warrior mugs. These fund raisers help the club in sponsoring events which benefit the community; Such events are canned food drives, a dinner for a family at Christmas and Thanksgiving, a party for the children of a crippled childrens hospital, and an adopted family to which they brought clothes and toys. C.O.E. members also partake in jobs after school which improve their skills and knowledge of business. The students learn techniques which cannot be provided in the classroom. This helps the participants to develop a working knowledge of business practices and procedures. Some of the after school jobs are as secretaries, bank tellers, accountants, and positions in the field of data processing. C.O.E. has been, and continues to be a stepping stone into the business world.

DECA Members were greeted by a new face this year at Westwood. Mr. McLaughlin now teaches marketing, distributive education, and DECA classes. Graduating from Westwood's first class in 1965, this former Warrior is proud to have returned. From Westwood he attended the University of Arizona for four years. Mr. McLaughlin has taught the emotionally handicapped and juvenile delinquents.

"Westwood's DECA has a tremendous legacy of being the finest chapter in the state of Arizona, and one of the finest in the United States" says Mr. McLaughlin.

DECA is a social organization which promotes vocational understanding, civic conscienceness, social intelligence, and leadership development. There are a variety of activities which they partake in. DECA sponsors money raising events such as the bowl-a-thon and bike-a-thon. Signs for the football games and other events are made by DECA. The selling of concessions at the football games is just one of the many ways they raise their money.

Jobs, Business, And You

JAG (Jobs for Arizona Graduates) is a club for the seniors of Westwood High. This club gives these students a chance to go out and get hands on experience. "This way you don't have to always read it out of a book, which may be boring and/or monotonous at the same time, and that isn't very fun." The work experience which this club gives will help better the student in his field, and at the same get him ready for when he has to go out and pick the type of career for himself and for his family.

FBLA (The Future Business Leaders of America) is another good club for the student's future as a prospective business person in our society of tomorrow. The (FBLA) teaches our young business people how to achieve the height of their talents in school, in this way preparing them to use their skills of the trade in which they choose to enter as a career. "A jump ahead of every one else" is the main purpose of this fascinating business club, getting students to dive deep into the so-called jungle of the outside world of business so, thanks to Mr. Reeve Luxmore, Mrs. Helen Ong, & Mr. Chuck Thompson Westwood students are better equiped to handle their life's careers.

Diligent District Administration Keeps Mesa Schools Intact

The Mesa Public School's superintendency and school board worked diligently to maintain the reputation of the finest school district in the state. With the expansion of Mesa's district by two new schools, Dobson High School and Taylor Junior High School, this task was not easy. Strong leadership proved to be the key to success as Superintendent, Dr. George N. Smith, and Associate Superintendent, Dr. James Zaharis, further increased Mesa's high educational reputation.

The School Board consisting of five community members made conscientious decisions affecting the Mesa schools with the student's best welfare in mind.

All school children in Mesa can be proud of their hard-working district administration.

Rookie Warrior Leads Westwood Administration

"A dream come true", is the attitude of new principal Jack Joyce regarding his appointment to Westwood. According to Mr. Joyce, it never seemed possible. But his dream came true, and Joyce became the newest addition to the Westwood administration.

Despite only being here a few months, Joyce has developed an incredible fondness for the school and the students. "This school has totally exceeded my expectations. I love the students, and love being around them. The spirit here is just incredible. The friendliness is also overwhelming."

"Westwood probably has the greatest reputation in the state", Joyce stated, referring to the achievement of former Westwood students, and the quality of its scholastic programs.

"The rest of the staff has been invaluable", Joyce added, "They made it so easy to adjust here, it seemed almost a breeze, I don't think I could've done it without them."

A smooth start followed by an excellent year, proved Joyce's ability, and Westwood is looking forward to many more years under the leadership of a principal who is going to stay "As long as they'll have me."

Counselors Lead Warriors Through Successful Year

This year the counseling department was successful again in their ambition to help Westwood students. From private counseling to career planning and college preparations, the counselors, led by Jack Frontone, were on top of it. They also offered post high school planning meetings for all of the Mesa schools which included conferring with colleges, technical schools, and vocational schools.

As moving on to college loomed before many students, the counselors made every effort possible to make their transition a smooth one. Mrs. Peterson, in the career center, offered students information about colleges, careers, and vocational opportunities. The services offered to every student in the form of scholarship and test information, by all five counseling personnel, were invaluable.

As well as helping prepare for further education, the counselors worked hard to help students with any present difficulties. The counselors found that they were most called upon to help with communication problems. A new self image program called EDGE was piloted in the second semester of this year.

The diligent devotion of all of these people helped to make it a great year.

Many Important Skills Taught For The Future

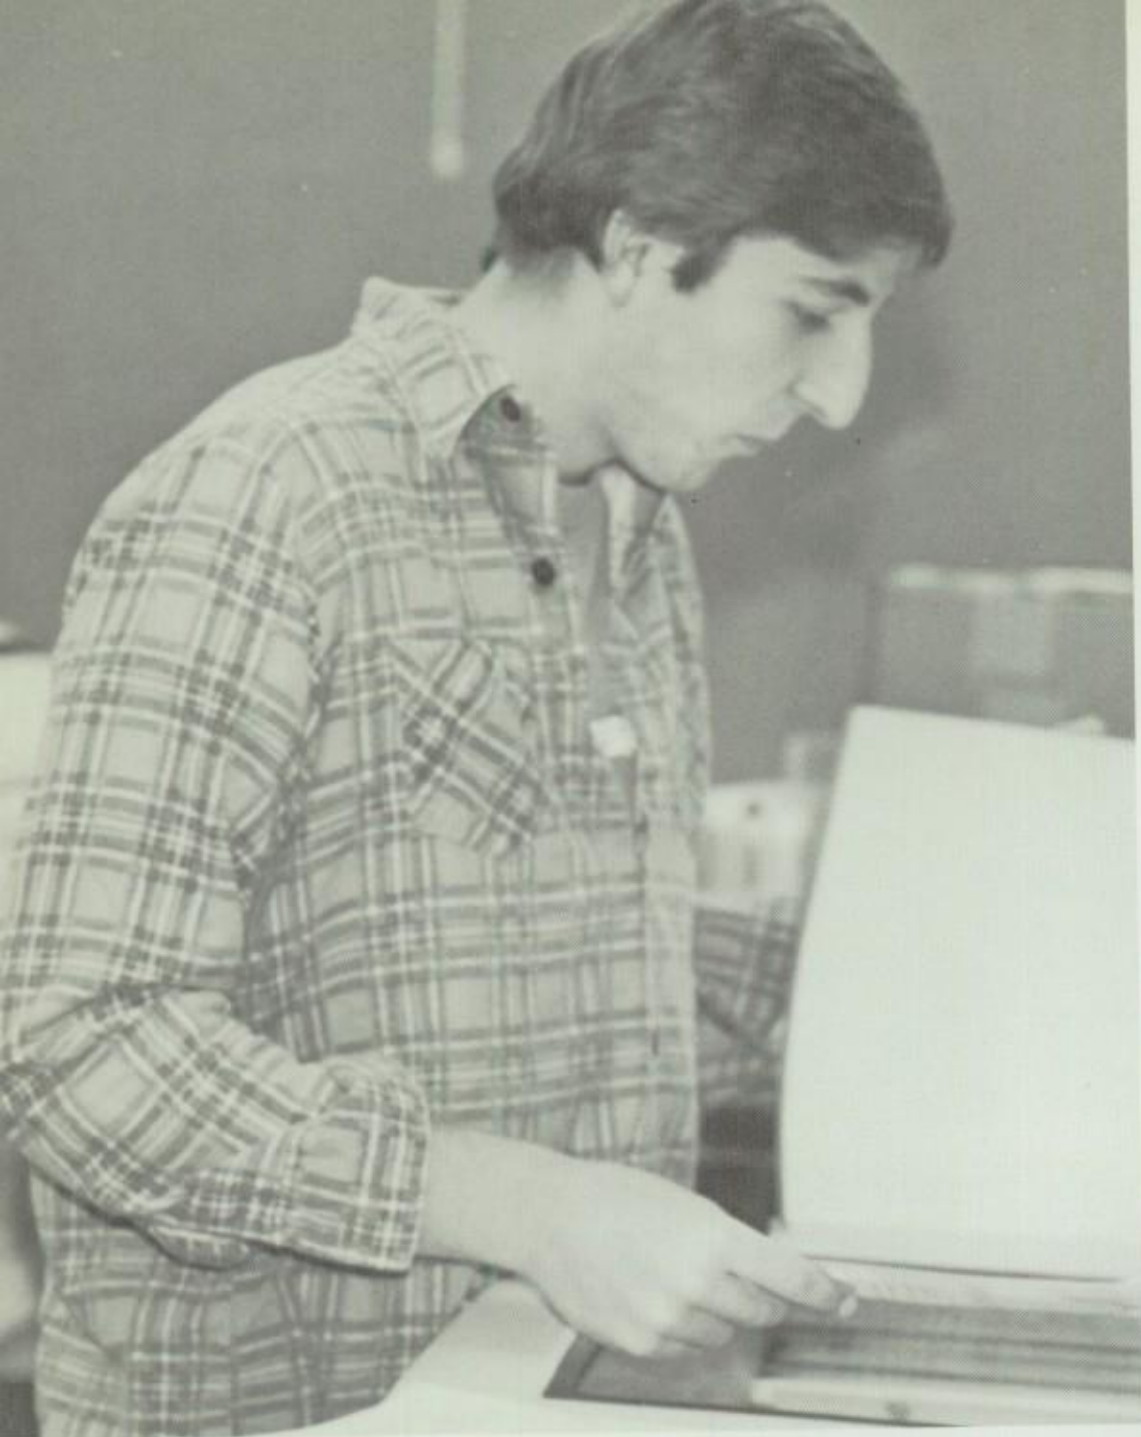

Once again the hard working and dedicated staff of the Home Ec, Industrial Arts, and Arts departments met their usual set of high standards. They were involved in teaching skills students could use in later years.

In the Home Ec department many students, both male and female, learned and practiced many worthwhile skills. Among these were cooking, sewing, child guidance, interior design, and consumerism.

The Art department broke up hectic days and gave students a chance to relax. Pottery, photography, jewelry, and drawing were available during that time.

The Industrial Arts department also gave many students the chance to develop many skills. Among these were metal working and wood working. This may have been the start to many productive and successful careers.

Special Folks Perform; Give Enjoyment To All

Perhaps the most active group at Westwood was the performing arts department. Mr. Jay Dean Jones, who lead the department, was in charge of all performing arts' activities. The department provided both school and public with a variety of productions including assemblies, concerts from the bands, choirs, and orchestra, and the Fall and Spring plays. The Fall play this year was "The Curious Savage" and the Spring play was "Once Upon a Mattress". Both plays were deemed a smashing success. The department also produced one - night plays to raise funds for a scholarship fund.

The bands, choirs, and orchestra, represented Westwood at many competitions and festivals throughout the United States, in which they received number one ratings.

Another active group was the Audio - Visual department. Directed by Frank Larsen and Mary Lou Allred, the students learned to repair and view educational films. They also became familiar with almost every room on campus, since they had to deliver a variety of A.V. equipment to them.

Languages, Social Studies, Aid In Life Work

Although Government teachers, economic teachers, history teachers, and language teachers stressed different fundamentals, they were united in one purpose. Teachers of both departments tried to familiarize students with various cultures, while challenging them to use their minds to solve problems and answer questions.

Some social studies classes spoke of the past, while others tried to help students with their futures. History teachers spoke of the great accomplishments left for future generations by our Founding Fathers. In free enterprise and government classes students were taught methods of survival and ways to keep America going strong.

Students who took foreign language classes didn't learn about the Founding Fathers of the United States, but were introduced to other countries. The foreign language department at Westwood is very advanced compared to those at the other schools. The students at Westwood learned to speak a language as well as to read and to write it. Westwood offers many different language courses: German, French, and Spanish.

After students survived a long year of study guides, handouts, and the overall work that accompanies a social study or foreign language course, they had the opportunity to be better informed and better prepared for their futures.

Complex Figures, Scientific Procedures

Mathematics and science are two of Westwood's very important as well as very challenging subjects. Both of these departments have numerous areas of study.

The mathematics department was varied and interesting in its subject choices. The availability of these math related courses gave the students of Westwood a wide-ranging choice of subject matter, from the basics of algebra to advanced calculus.

The science department was not to be out done by the math department either in the quantity or quality of subject's offered in the 1981-82 school year. Interesting classroom and laboratory studies served to challenge students.

The teachers of these two departments encouraged students as well as making education in their areas interesting and beneficial.

Eurythmics Taught; Sportsmanship Goal

To some Westwood students, Physical Education was just a required subject, but to most people it was a learning experience to help the mind and body progress. Major goals this year in both the girls and boys departments were to teach and stress self-discipline and sportsmanship as well as overall competition.

Many girls were interested in the areas of weight training and conditioning to help keep them in shape during their out season. Aerobic dancing was also one of the main activities that was liked.

Football, soccer, basketball, and racquetball were a few of the activities offered for boys in P.E. Conditioning and weightlifting were part of the daily routines.

Besides the regular classes, Co Educational, Dance, and the sixth hour sports program were offered to P.E. students.

Business, Auto, Prepare For Future

When not competing for awards, the agriculture classes were busy raising cows, chickens and rabbits, for breeding, along with flowers and vegetables. Thu Smith, a sophomore agriculture student, said the class was really exciting and a lot of interesting things happened.

This years big events consisted of a fall and a spring banquet which included slaughtering a steer and barbequing it themselves.

If one were to walk in the auto mechanics room this year, he would have seen and heard a lot of commotion. The class members were busy taking cars apart and putting them back together. The auto classes also spent time identifying and working with all parts of the auto mechanic world.

Business classes spent a good many hours working on subjects that related to the business world. Students were exposed to the areas of bookkeeping, accounting, shorthand, and typing. If the students wished, they could join either of the business clubs DECA or COE.

Each of these different classes proved to be a positive influence to its students and will help them make a career choice in the future.

Cafeteria Maintains After Lack Of Business; Janitors Strive To Keep Westwood Looking Nice

Westwood's Cafeteria was forced to confront an increasing problem this year. Due to rising food prices, the cost of school lunches went up. Unfortunately, as these prices went up, the quantity of food served went down. The school cafeteria lost business as more and more students opted for other places to eat lunch. Despite their difficulties, however, Westwood's cafeteria has survived and will be able to continue next year.

In the meantime Westwood custodians worked dutifully to beautify the campus. Their efforts could be seen in freshly painted rooms, mowed lawns, clean concrete, and vacuumed carpets. Both the custodians and the cafeteria workers are important parts of Westwood's special services.

In other areas of special services the ROTC program grew even larger over the previous year. Andre Messali was as busy as ever in the bookstore with his helper Margaret Morris. Students were issued their books efficiently with Mr. Messali there to guide them. The emotionally handicapped departments of special services were led by capable and invaluable people such as Christine Doll and Anthony Harris.

Overall Westwood's special services helped to contribute to the fine value of excellence associated with Mesa schools. Their contributions to the entire school were of great worth and merit.

Library Continues To Be Important Part Of School

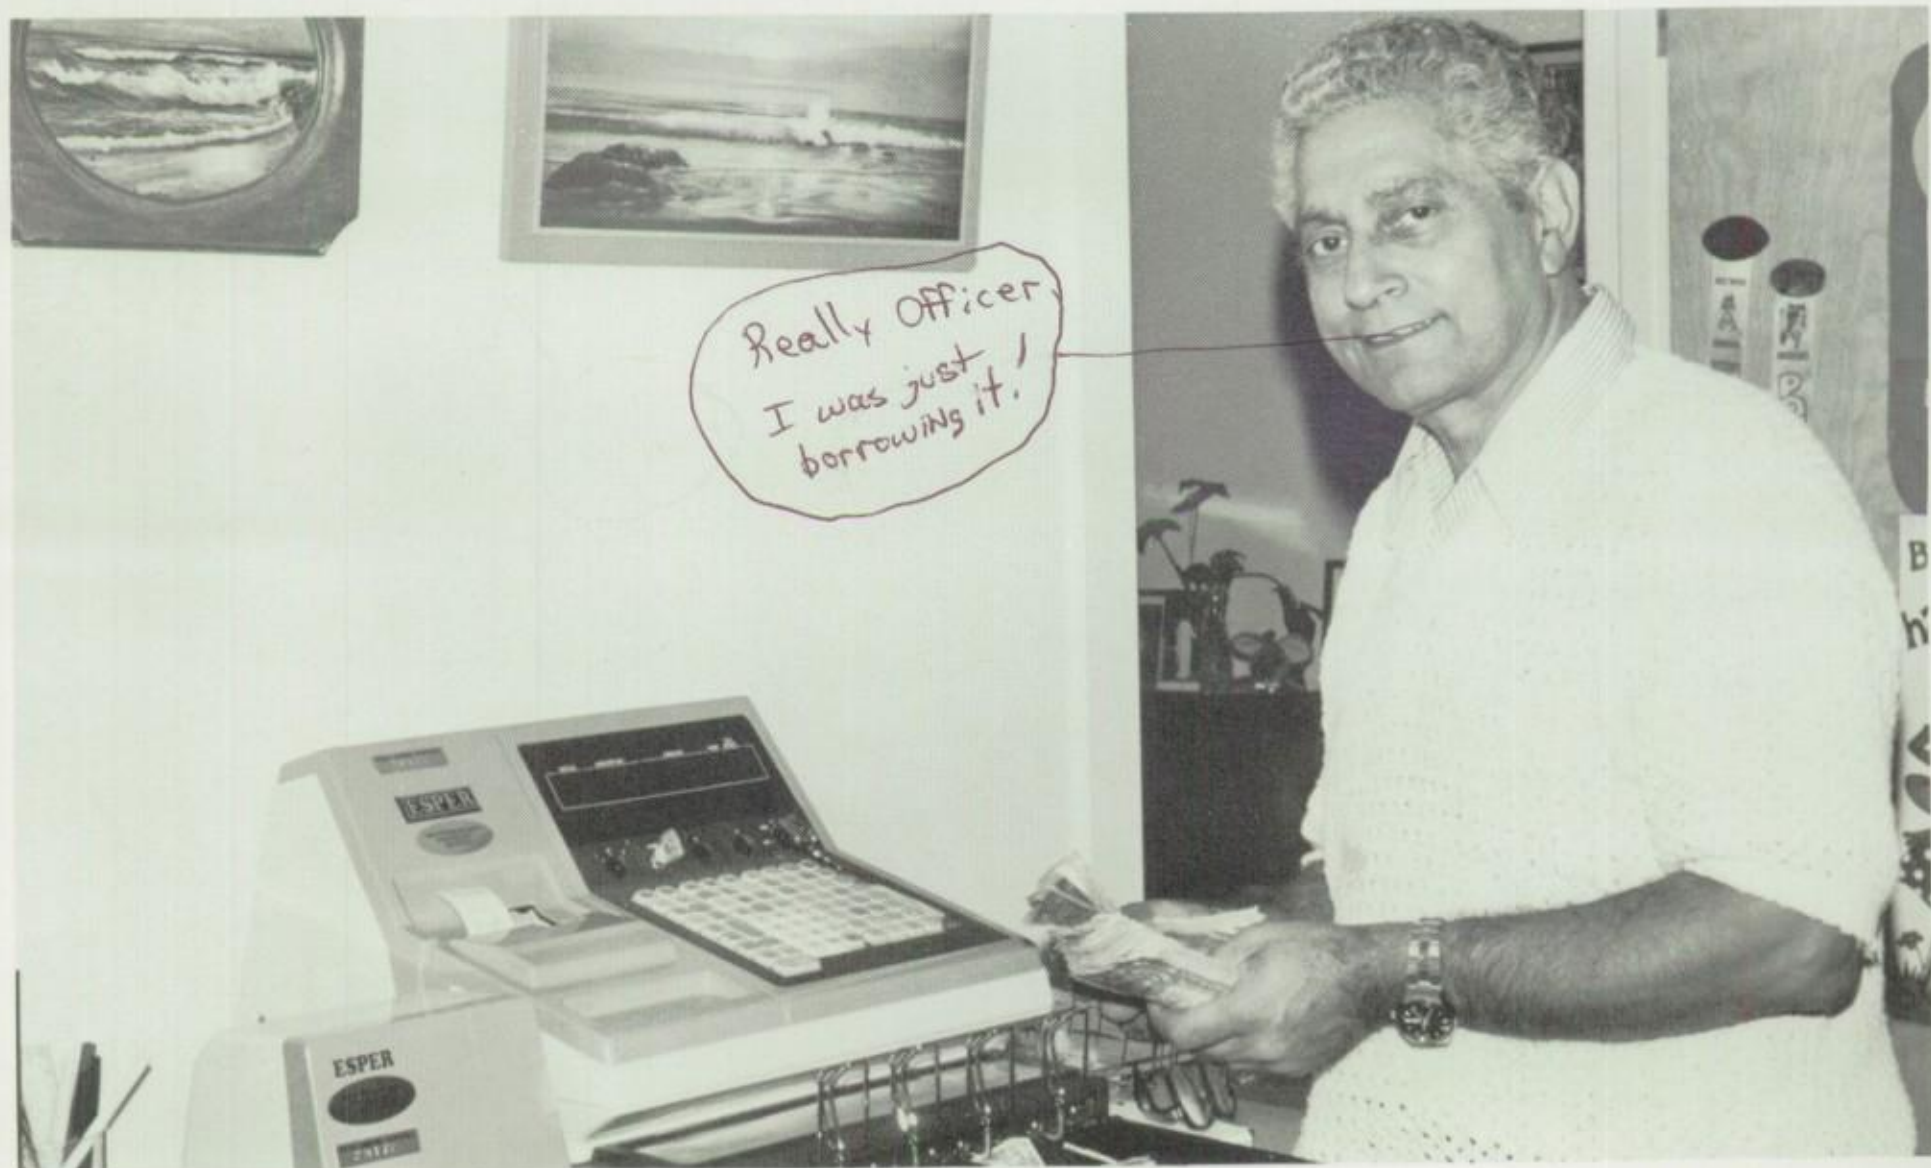

The Special Services at Westwood were in fine form this year as they helped students and teachers.

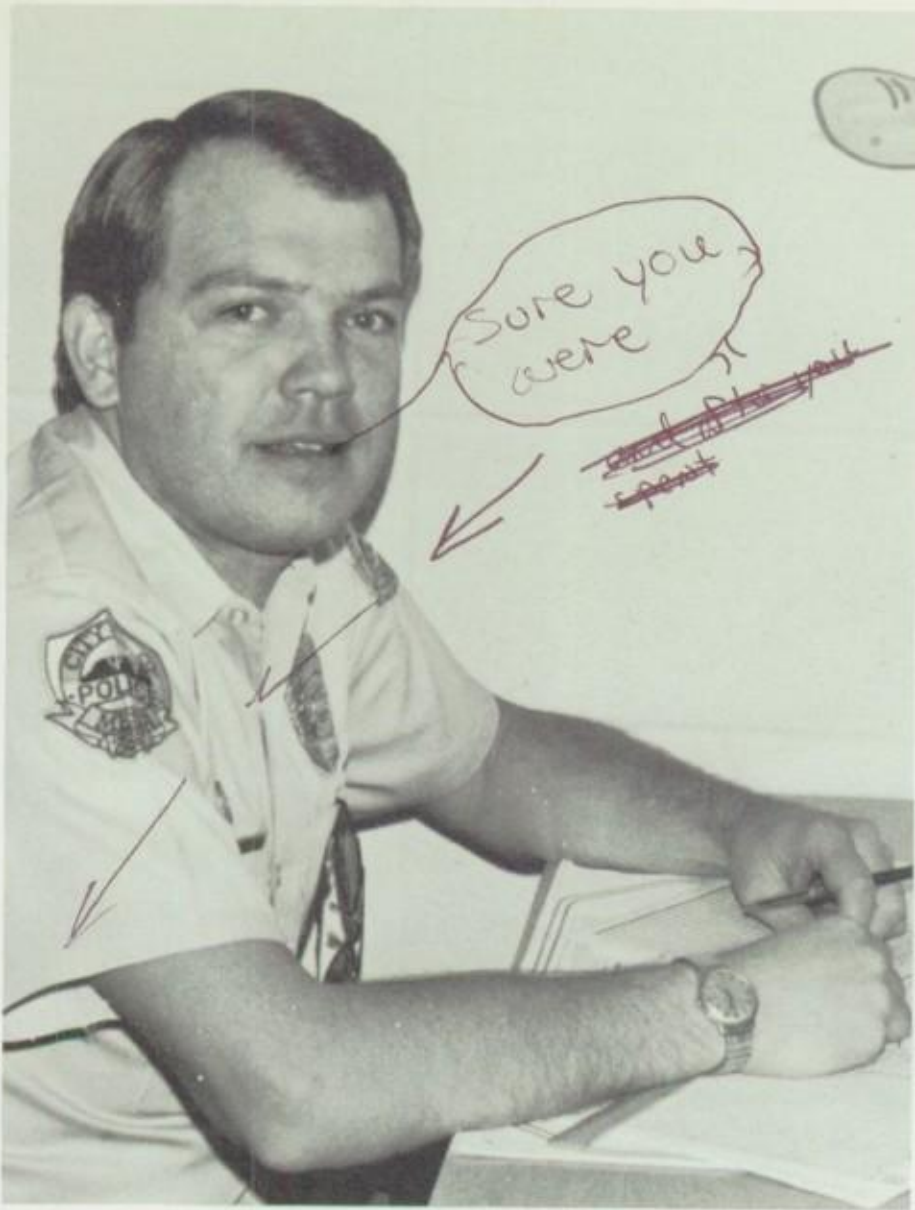

In the library Rosemary Wilder, Dyan West, Barbara Reisland, and Betty Jackson supplied the information needed to understand the library. They guided students, checked out books, put up library displays, and, of course, issued fines on overdue library books. Their expediency and efficiency was helpful to all library patrons.

In another area of Special Services, Officer Dalton offered pertinent information to Westwood concerning the police and the law.

The bookstore was manned by Andre Messali. As well as monitoring bookstore funds, Mr. Messali helped many groups and organizations with money matters. Some of these organizations include Publications and Honor Choir.

English Flourishes; Grammar Skills Taught

English may not be one's favorite subject, but most students will agree that it is very important. Here at Westwood, fourteen teachers are currently using enthusiasm and skill to make it as interesting as possible.

Three credits of English are needed to graduate and four credits are preferred when entering college. When one has completed his required classes, he has twenty-one English electives to choose from. Mythology, world literature, and paperback literature are just some of the varieties of English classes taught at Westwood.

We have learned, in our younger years of English, to read, to write, and to speak. In our older years we have learned to improve in these areas of study.

Friends And Experiences

Since arriving at Westwood in late January I have enjoyed many new and exciting experiences. One of the trickiest things for me to over come was the size of Westwood, having come from a school of 750-800. I have traveled throughout the mid-western states during the summer and was astounded by the vast differences in the terrain.

During the spring I was part of the Westwood tennis team that was coached by Mr. Rod Richmond. In the fall of the new school year I was a member of the boy's golf team. For the rest of the short time that I was at Westwood I was on the boy's soccer team.

I have really enjoyed my short stay in Arizona. It may seem to many people that a year is a long time to be away from home but I can assure you that it is not nearly long enough. Although there are some who really made me feel welcome while I was at Westwood, one of these is Mr. Bill White who not only helped me out at school but opened his home to me. I must thank all those teachers who put up with my large numbers of absences but most of all I must thank my friends and fellow students who put up with my continual asking for rides all over town. I thank you and Westwood for making me welcome.

Learn From Experience

In the three short years I have been at Westwood, some of my most enjoyable times were spent as a member of the Westwood Swim Team. Being on the swim team has helped me to grow not only as an athlete, but as a person. I am extremely grateful to the team and Coach Cummins for the support they have given me in the past years. As I look back on my experiences I realize that I have learned many things. They have taught me discipline, respect, good sportsmanship, and responsibility. The most important lesson I have learned is that in sports, like in life, you receive only what you are willing to put into it. Now that I will be leaving Westwood High, and the swim team, I know I will be leaving more mature and more knowledgeable than when I arrived. This maturity and knowledge will surely help me in later life. Although I will be gone, I will always have good memories of Westwood High.

Pommies Create Spirit

Performing on the Warriorette line is one of the most exciting opportunities we have had during our high school years. The experience of dancing at games, pep rallies, and parades has been thrilling for us, making all of our hard work worthwhile when we perform for the student body and other various audiences. Somewhere along the line, we hope to have contributed a bit of spirit to the student body of Westwood by having made the assemblies and games a bit more enjoyable.

But Warriorettes isn't all glamour and smiles. It takes many hours of disciplined and dedicated work. Practice consists of marching with the band before school, dancing first hour, and sometimes after school. Not only those, but hours spent on choreographing and home practice are long and tedious. Friday night performances become polished to perfection through an excess amount of rehearsal and tiring work.

Being on the line for two years has taught us many things; compatability, perseverance, and understanding. But the greatest quality is the friendships that are formed, especially amongst our 1981-82 Warriorette line.

Work To Be Done By Some; Fun To Be Had By All

Westwood's newspaper staff was led by Senior editors Kate Ward and Doug Woelkers. The staff suffered various problems throughout the year and yet they were able to produce and deliver thirteen issues of the Warchant on schedule. Beginning the year was tough for Kate and Doug since they had to train a very young and inexperienced staff; however, the young group quickly caught on. In October, just before the first edition of the paper was to be delivered, the local printer went out of business. Luckily, Lane Printers took over the school contract and Kate, Doug and their staff were able to adapt to his new style.

The Staffers are responsible for coming up with five story ideas, and a written column with a headline. Writing these columns includes choosing an angle, conducting interviews, researching the subject, and finally putting it all together in a readable fashion.

With work comes play and that's just what the Staff does after each deadline. This past year the Staff had the opportunity to test the cafeterias experimental food, after running a questionnaire in the paper and receiving the students opinions. They also had class picnics once every two weeks. Birthdays and holidays were also celebrated. This past Christmas both Staffs were able to enjoy the company of Father Christmas (alias Ian Parks). Ian was on the newspaper staff but had to return to New Zealand in January.

Bob,
It hasn't been nice knowing you and I hope I don't see you next year
(except in art) and I will tell you all my art secrets because your a low-life scummy maggot and you'll never learn them! HAHAA!
But really, all seriousness aside... I hope you go out to the desert in the middle of the day and a thous and thousand-pound puma girls jump your bone! HAHAA!
Take Care,
John Robbins

Staffers Quickly Unite

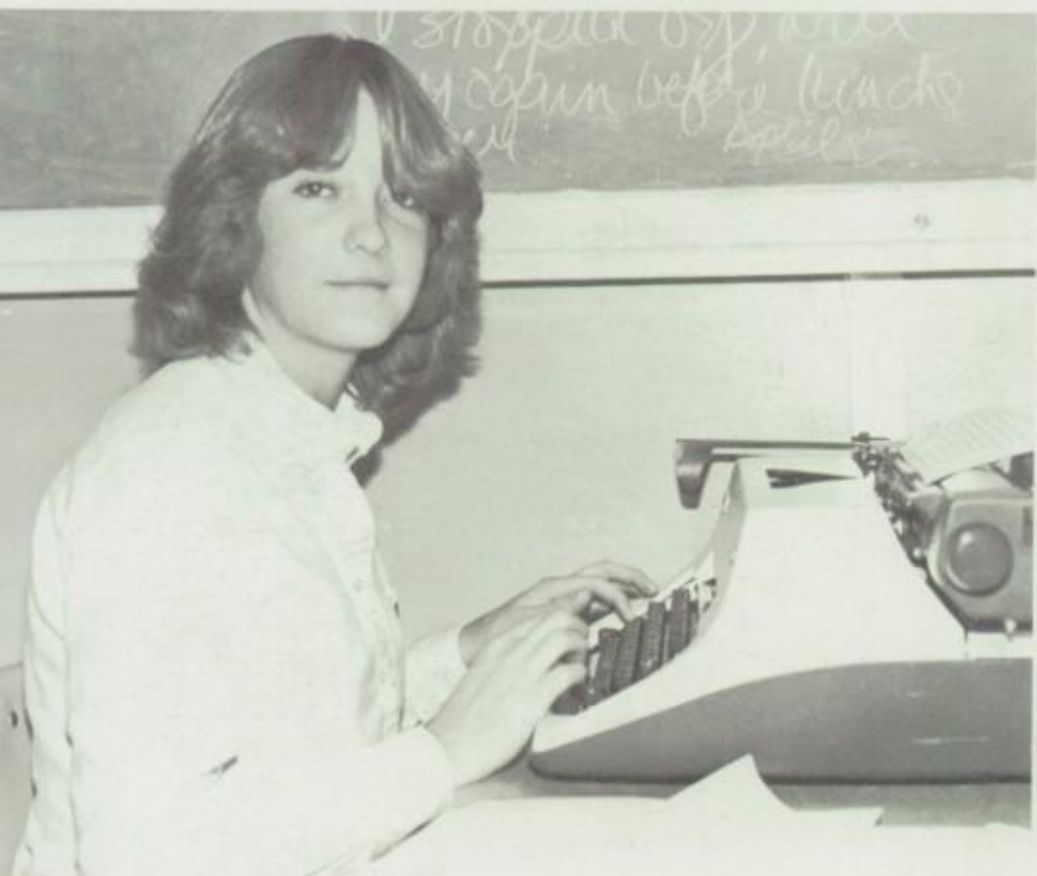

Westwood's Yearbook Staffs were led by Senior editors Katie Petrie, Bill Durler and Laurie Hunt. The Chieftain staff was very inexperienced; in fact, out of a total of 30 staffers some 23 had never been in the publications room before. Although the work is confusing and time consuming the new staff adjusted well.

Missing one deadline can mean not receiving our yearbook by the end of the school year and our staffers are made quite aware of it. Included in five deadlines are all school activities, clubs, faculty, class pictures, sports and nameless other things. Since we do have a contract agreement we are only able to cover as much as possible in the little time we have.

Staffers are constantly busy making dummy layouts, writing copy, making picture appointments, indexing names and finally bringing it all together without any costly mistakes. All worked together on a tight schedule. Each depended on each other and there is no way one could do it alone.

The Chieftain also has many fun activities such as the Elks Hoop Shoot where we work with the Elks to pick our regional representative to the National Free Throw Contest. We also pick a Chieftain Queen at a basketball game which was followed by a dance. This years winner was Katie Petrie. The staffers also picnic once a week if deadlines permit and celebrate each staffers birthday, with cake and all the trimmings.

This book was published in hopes of capturing the special moments we've all shared throughout the year. I think the staff has accomplished more than that, they have captured the spirit, pride and loyalty each of us has for Westwood. For that they should stand proud.

There are many people to thank for all the help, patience, and understanding that they have given me and my staff throughout the year. Without people like John "Dad" Donovan, Bud Ford, Sue MacDonald and understanding teachers like Mrs. Tininenko this book might never have been published.

There are many memories that this book holds for me, not just the pages themselves, but what went into making them. I will never forget the third hour language classes trying to teach our foreign students "useful" words, or our last minute marathons when we were forced to "eat in". I am sure that all the staffers will cherish these memories as long as I will.

I want to thank "Dad" Donovan for showing me the ropes and giving me the room to take over when I was ready, Laurie Hunt for giving her quiet say and her helping hand, and Little Mac for filling his brothers shoes. Bill and Toby for coming through even if it was at the very last minute. I thank my staff for putting up with me when deadlines were near and my temper was short. Last but not least I thank you Mike for sharing my tears and my laughter, I thank you just for being there.

I have made many new friendships through the publication of this book that I am very grateful for. This book represents the product of my friendships and memories. I hope this book helps each of you to remember all the special moments and special people that you have encountered throughout the year. Take care and "Bonne Chance"
